Frink Hits McDonald

Democratic 19th District congressional candidate Gary R. Frink Saturdy scored his opponent, Republican Jack H. McDonald, for "valture in the dispresentative duties of a congressman."

Frink, speaking before a Livonia shopping center raily, consider the problem of committee work.

"Consider the problem opverty and race relations," the 35-year-old Pontias lawyer told his audience, "Redbe Donald) voted in favor of open housing and food stamps, But he voted against rest supplements, the model cities program and the rat bill.

"Where does he stand?

"Apparently be has nothing against filling the cupboards of the poor -- as long as you leave the rais in them."
