Easter Seal Society Serves Community

The Easter Seal Society of "Western Wayne County has ren-"dered services to 34 crippide Children and 282 adults during the Society's fiscal year, Sept. 1987 through Aug. 31, 1988.

In addition, over 3,467 contacts with handleapped in-dividuals (either Individually or the groups) have been made by telephone or by mail. Services to individuals included information about community resources and assistance both in equiting to them and using them difficulties!

sources and assistance both in getting to them and using them officitively.

Local leaders said Easter Seal services have supplemented those offered by other agencies. Whon services are not available, the Easter Seal Society offers them, to the extent that its resources permit.

QNE OF the major examples of this are the weekly checks for transportation and maintenance advanced to handicapped individuals in training under the sponsorship of the State Division of Vocational Rehabilitation.

Islon of Vocational Rehabilitation.

Another example of the Society's Bestibility can be society's Bestibility can be sen in the provision of quarters to a special education program for multiple - handicapped teenagers in cooperation with local public school districts.

Other services planned on an individual basis include loans of equipment such as wheel-chairs and walkers, assistance to families for such purchases when the family can neither cover the total costs nor quality for Stete aid, and sharing the costs of speech therapy for pre-school children with parents. THE SUMMER day camp for

THE SUMMER day camp for crippled children is a traditional part of the Society's service to individuals in groups. Year-round clubs for leen-agers and adults are additional sources of stimulation to those whose social contacts are limited. The report this year again gives full credit to the many volunteers who augment the small staff of the Society not only in raising funds, but also in giving direct service to handicapped children and adults, They serve as aldes to the clubs, with year-round clorical tester and some or Board and clubs, with year-round clerical tasks and serve as Board and Committee members. The local Easter Seal Society, an affiliate of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Michigan and the National Easter Seal Society, is supported by contributions of Caster Seals and related events at Easter time, as well as the Seals and related events at Easter time, as well as by special edits from lines by special edits from lines by special edits from lines.

Churches Need Down-To-Earth Concern In Charity, Catholics Say

"The down-to-earth concern that business shows for profits, that unions show for benefits for their members and that politicians show for those who re-elect them must become the electron them must become the pattern for purposent Church action in behalf of the poor, the unorganized and the un-represented."

"Shunning the role of the thorist or shallow activist, the Church must figuratively the charten must figuratively the profit of the position of the John the positions where they exist and even in the political areas, in cooperation with the total religious community."

The RR Rev, Msgr. Ferdinand De Consumusity. "The RR Rev, Msgr. Ferdinand De Consumusity Affairs commission of the Arreddicoss of Sporid, to organize Administration of the Community Affairs commission of the Arreddicoss." "Very feer, said.

"These who say the Church is reliable to the control to reliable the said are not against soil said and the said are producted to the said and indight the said and said indight the said and said parish the said and said feel the said and the said feel the said action. It is heart-warning to know that very, 'evry few are dead set against any moves forward."

Mrs. James Brophy, Synod Commission co-chairman, add-ed. "Happily, it appears that the Synod has helped to lithensity in all of us a practical interest in the problems of the community. This is especially true at the parish level, where those who took part in the Speak-up sessions are, by and large, affirming that community is the community in the commission of the christian." In the interim report, based in large part on the work of task forces assigned to certain areas, the commission considered five areas of Church concern: (1) in the working community, (2) in urban problems, (3) in community health may be community and (9) in the "power structure" that has a major role in setting the Towner some of the recommendations.

CONDUCT PARISH RENEWALS — The Rev. Cletus Sullivan (left) and the Rev. Michael Flynn are two of three priests from the Carmelite Institute of Renewal, Mundelein, Ill., who will conduct a program of spiritual revival in three Livonia area Roman Catholic Churches. Parishes taking part are St. Edith and St. Michael in Livonia and St. Kenneth in Plymouth Township. The priests will rotate parishes for five successive weekends, beginning Nov. 3, to preach at Sunday Masses on an updated approach to Christian problems. They also will conduct home discussions on all matters pertaining to the Christian faith in today's world.
