County Democrats easily agree on Clinton, Gore_

It was almost as easy as Michigan Democratic leaders made it look.
This year, all candidates for national convention delegates and alternates were for the incumbent Clinton-Gore team. No hassle over what proportion a minor candidate would get or who would pick them.
Altogether, 317 of the party faithful sought 47 at-large elegate slots and six at-large alternates. The problem of how to winnow them down was resolved vinnow them down was resolved Saturday in Brighton High School when party chair Mark Brewer unveiled a "unity state"

Committee to adopt.

The unity slate was elected unanimously and without dis-unanimously and without dis-sent.

Michigan will send a total of 168 delegates and 21 alternates to the largely ceremonial nation-al convention in Chicago Aug. 11-15. Brower, a Mount Clemens since Democrats don't own the governor's office.
"I have good news," Brewer told the assemblage. The Demo-cratic National Commuttee is making Doug Ross a super-dele-gate to the platform committee. That gives Michigan seven seats instead of six."

Ross is the former state senator from the Southfield area, Commerce director under Gov. James Blanchard and now job training idea man in President Bill Clinton's Labor Department. Now a West Bloomfield resident, Ross often has been mentioned as a gubernatorial possibility. "We've exceeded our affirmative action goals," Brewer told a questioner. Michigan's delegation must include at least 37 minorities and actually has somewhere in the mid-40s, he said, adding, "I know the president appreciates it."

Democrats this year boycotted the March 19 presidential primary called under a Ropublicanwritten law. Instead, Democrats held caucuses March 16 in which Clinton got about 6,000 votes against a handful of opposition votes. And the Democratic State Central Committee, instead of a state convention, picked the atlarge delegates.
