RALLY AROUND THE FLAG
I once read an old letter from a Union soldier in the Civil War. He was going into battle the next morning and he wanted to write to his wife and children to express his feelings. His friends could greatly sympathize and be fully certain that his chance of survival were slim. He expressed his great love for them and he had no regrets to give up his life for his country. He reminded his wife to bring the children up in the way of the Lord and to always rally around the flag.
Memorial Day is not just a day to commemorate those who valiantly served our flag and were killed in active military service. Honoring all who gave their lives for God and country is important so that we may never forget the sacrifices made for freedom. We may sometimes take our great country for granted, but this holiday helps remind us of those who shed their blood for us. In the words of John, "Let us talk to God through the commandment, that we love one another as I have loved of you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country.
John F. Kennedy
