Museum schedules stencil class

The Rochester Hills Museum at Van Hoesen Farm presents local crafts person Betsey Schad and her class on the methods of stenciling techniques 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, June 1.

Mediums covered will include paper, fabric, wood and wall board. Participants will finish projects on fabric and wood. Materials are supplied and included in the $20 registration fee.
Participants should bring a sack lunch.

For more information or pre-registration, call the museum at (810) 856-4663.

The workshop will take place in the historic Stoney Creek School House.
Register at the museum 1-4 p.m.
Wednesday-Sunday or by mail to the Rochester Hills Museum, 1000 Rochester Hills Drive, Rochester Hills 48309. Make your checks payable to City of Rochester Hills.

Home stylist offers help with decorating

Laura Ashley's home styling program provides customers with a trained design professional who works out of a Laura Ashley store.

Many of the professionals are members of the American Society of Interior Designers. The home stylist will visit the client's home to create custom decorating projects and supervise their installations, for a one-time fee of $75 for up to three rooms. The fee is waived once $750 is spent.

The home stylist will make design recommendations, suggest fabric wall covering choices and paint colors, take measurements, advise on furniture, lighting and accessories purchases and arrange to have window treatments, slipcovers or other home furnishing projects made to specific needs.

Clients can use the Laura Ashley Made-to-Measure or Made-to-Order and other custom options to have decorative items made. In addition, the home stylist can help the homeowner integrate or refurbish existing furniture, coordinating with local workrooms for special needs.

The home stylist can work on any project, from a single-room city apartment to the entire redecoration of a country house.

For information, call toll-free (800) 367-2000.
