

Garden delights go on display in Farmington

The Farmington Garden Club hosts a biannual garden walk, showcasing eight private and public gardens in the Farmington-Farmington Hills area, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, June 22.

This year's theme, "Garden Palette," features a variety of gardening design techniques with color and shape combinations, such as those found at an English cottage or a centennial farmhouse. As an added highlight, area quilters, artists and weavers will be displaying their talents, weather permitting. Garden-related items will be at a special boutique. Refreshments will be served.

The walk begins at the Spicer House
