"where the Spirit of God is Directing"

We cannot overstate our debt to the past, but the moment has the supreme claim.
- Ralph Waldo Emerson

DON'T LOOK BACK

We used to own a station wagon with a third seat in the "way back." We called it the "way back," to distinguish it from the back seat. The only problem was that it faced the back of the car, and whenever the children sat there for a long trip, some would get car sick. We would always joke that they could see where they had been. Life is something like a way back seat; if we dwell too much on the past, it can sometimes make us sick. We should keep our eyes on the future and look from the past, but live in the present. The Bible tells us to live one day at a time. That doesn't mean we shouldn't plan for the future, but since only God really knows the future, we should enjoy today.
