

STAFF PHOTO BY DAN DEAN

Past champ: A plaque of Andy North rests among The Walk of Champions along the first tee at the Oakland Hills Country Club. The 1996 Open victor will be commemorated in similar fashion as North and other past tournament winners.

North returns to scene of big victory

BY MARTY BUDNER
STAFF WRITER

Andy North will return to Oakland Hills.

And most likely it won't be as a player, but as a broadcaster for ESPN.

In perhaps his most heralded career triumph, North captured the 1985 U.S. Open played at Oakland Hills. It was a tournament the 46-year-old Wisconsin native will never forget.

"That definitely was a career high-

See North, page 9

ESQ.

Top Flite is a registered trademark of Spalding Sports Worldwide.

$125
his or hers

THE ESQUIRE GOLF WATCH™
A unique gift idea for the golf enthusiast. The bright 3-micron 23K gold finish bezel and white lacquer dial sport a dimpled golf ball design. Swiss quartz. Mineral crystal. Stainless steel case back. Double-stitched black leather strap. Comes with 4 Top Flite® golf balls, 2 ball markers and a wooden tee. Water-resistant to 99 feet.

ROSE JEWELERS
A Family Tradition Since 1904

336 Main Street
Downtown Rochester
652-2400

NOW OPEN

Twist & Shout

HOT SOFT ROLLED GOURMET PRETZELS

217 WOODWARD - BIRMINGHAM
(Next to the Birmingham Theatre)
642-3131