DCI completes weekend sweep

Thanks to some solid pitching, Decision Consultants, Inc. went three-for-three during weekend action in the Livonia Collegiate Baseball League at Ford Field.

Second-place DCI improved to 9-4-1 by trimming Michigan Honig's on Friday, 12-1, in five innings (10-run mercy rule).

Mike Cervenak's, who just completed his freshman year at Michigan, belted a grand slam in the bottom of the fifth to end the game.

Pete Quinn, the Redford Thurston High product now playing for Madonna University, added a double, triple and two RBI. E.J. Roman also had two hits for the winners.

Pitcher Mitch Jabczynski, who allowed just three hits over five innings, raised his LBCL record to 3-0. He struck out four and walked one.

On Sunday, DCI swept Little Caesars in a double-header, 4-2 and 6-2.

DCI won the nightcap by scoring four runs in the fourth inning.

Quinn and Greg Ryan (Eastern Michigan) walked and singled, respectively, to start the inning. Darrell Rocho then reached base on an error, one of six on the day by Caesars (5-11), sending both runners home. Delano Voletti and Matt Mlynarek then each followed with RBI singles.

DCI tallied its other two runs in the first when Ryan came around on three Caesars errors. Cervenak then homered.

Losing pitcher Kevin Uzaraki, who went 3-for-3 along with teammate Aaron Racy (Livonia Stevenson/Hilledale College), had an inside-the-park homer for Caesars in the third inning. Alex Oreatte added a solo shot over the left field fence in the fifth.

Steve Williams, who worked the first six innings before giving way to Jason Carter (Livonia Churchill/Madonna) in the seventh, earned the victory. Williams scattered seven hits, walked three and fanned 10.

Uzaraki, who worked six innings, allowed only one earned run. He struck out six and walked two.

In the opener, DCI used another big four-run inning to score the victory.

The four-run fourth was a result of Voletti opening with a single. He advanced to second on a wild pitch. Eric Marotte (Plymouth Canton/Madonna) then walked.

Ryan reached base on an error to send Voletti home before Cervenak (groundout), Quinn (single) and Rocho (single) each delivered RBI at-bats.

Caesars tallied one in the first when Brian Carter reached base on an error and scored on Adrian Williams' double. In the fifth, Oreatte double and eventually scored on Racy's RBI sacrifice fly.

Cotner led Caesars with two hits.

Alex Wozniak, the losing pitcher, gave up four hits and three walks over six innings.

Joel Hillebrand, the winning pitcher, tossed a six-hitter over seven innings. He struck out seven and walked two.

HINES PARK 6, CAESARS 1: Mark Fleming fired a three-hitter Friday, leading first-place Hines Park Lincoln/Mercy (15-0-1) to the LCBL victory over Little Caesars.

Fleming struck out eight and walked only two.

Jay Harrington, who pitched 6 2/3 innings for Caesars, striking out 11, took the loss. He walked four, but was the victim of four errors. All six runs were unearned.

Hines Park got a run in the third when Dave Kapke came around after a Caesars pick-off at first base.

In the sixth, Stacy McCollum doubled home Brian Kalczyński.

Scott Barrett then provided the big blow, unloading for a grand slam in the seventh.

Caesars got its lone run in the bottom of the seventh on singles by Uzaraki and Aaron Babco, followed by a Scott Carden groundout.

On Sunday, Hines Park won a pair of Honig's (10-14) forfeited.

*RAMS 10, WINDSOR SELECTS 8: Redford Union High product Jason Mitchell, who just completed his freshman year at Eastern Michigan, came through in the clutch with a key two-run single Sunday, leading the Michigan Rams to an Andy Metro Baseball Association win over the host Windsor Selects at Mac Mac Park.

The Rams, now 5-5 overall, rallied from an 8-3 deficit by scoring three runs in the seventh, keyed by Mitchell's two-run single. He spearheaded the comeback by slamming a two-run homer in the sixth.

Jason Horn, in relief of starter Brian Berryman (RU/Michigan), pitched five strong innings, allowing just three hits. He struck out seven and walked one. Horn also hit a solo homer.

Rickey Miller and Jamie Dean, each added two hits for the winners.

On Friday, the Class A Windsor Stars swept the Rams in a twinbill, 4-3 and 3-2, at Henry Ford Community College.

The Stars completed the sweep by scoring the game-winner in the seventh of the first game.

Horn, who pitched the final 2 2/3 innings in relief of starter Jake Lawson (Farmington Hills Harrison/Oakland University), suffered the loss.

In the opener, lefty Dave Susalla (Redford Catholic Central/UD Mercy) gave up two earned runs and four walks in taking the loss.

DeAndre Cooper had two hits and an RBI in a losing cause, while Greg Rogers (CC/OU) and Mitchell, also knocked in runs.

New season gets under way for summer hockey players

Lazy and hazy, hot and humid... ah-hh, summer. Perfect weather for --hockey!

That's correct, the summer hockey season has begun. The official start was Sunday, when the first three games of the Metro Summer Hockey League were played at the Plymouth Ice Arena.

And as in the past, offense ruled -- at least to start the season. Sunday's three games featured 34 goals.

Wolverines 5, Spartans 4: In the MSHL's first game of the season, the Wolverines built a three-goal lead by the midpoint of the third period, then had to hold on to beat the Spartans Sunday.

Paul Golemek's second goal of the game with 8:28 left, on an assist from Andrew Perry, boosted the Wolves' lead to 5-2.

But the Spartans weren't through. Brady Priest scored eight seconds later (assist to John Fontana and Chris Fresconi) to narrow the gap to 5-3. Jacob Heikinen made it a one-goal game with a score with 2:43 left (Jake and Josh Wiegand assisting).

However, the Wolves held on to win their opener. Other goal scorers for the winners were Matt Diak, Adrian Straka and Perry. Matt Megregian and Scott Golemek also had assists.

Both Josh and Jake Wiegand also had goals for the Spartans, who trailed 4-2 after two periods. Assistants went to Priest and Heikinen.

Broncos 8, Bulldogs 6: The Broncos scored the game's first four goals, then cruised to a win over the Bulldogs Sunday.

Jason Szykowski, Bill Trainor, Jarame Murray and Dan Trainor each had a goal as the Broncos jumped out to a 3-0 lead after one period and a 4-0 advantage with 5:03 left in the second period. Darren Hendrix scored twice after that for the winners to offset the Bulldogs' late rally. Brian Conlino and Dan Trainor also added goals.

Eric Evans contributed three assists, with Bill Trainor and Brent Bessey getting two apiece for the Broncos.

The Bulldogs got two goals and two assists apiece from Dave Devo and Dustin Sweeney. Brian Trainor also had a goal.

Wildcats 8, Huskies 4: Four third-period goals enabled the Wildcats to put away from the Huskies Sunday.

Antoni Bulgac scored one of the goals and assisted on two others in the third period rally. He finished the game with two goals and four assists.

Craig Judd contributed two goals and three assists for the Cats, with Bobby Davis adding two goals and an assist. Ed Monk's also scored a goal, and Bob Nagy chipped in with two assists.

For the Huskies, Jason Schoenberg scored three goals. Brian Harrington got one.

Schoenberg's third goal gave the Huskies a 4-3 lead with 3:47 left in the second period, but Judd tied it for the Wildcats with 1:50 remaining, setting the stage for their third period rally.

Falcons 5, Lakers 4: Goals by David Scott and Jesse Hudenschmidt (from Redford Catholic Central) in the final 1:47 allowed the Falcons to come from behind and beat the Lakers Monday at Plymouth.

Hudenschmidt finished the game with two goals and an assist to lead the Falcons. Mike Klinger and Dave Hunt also had goals, while Scott collected two assists.

The Lakers were led by Paola Decina, with a goal and an assist. Vic Decina, Mike Harris and Aaron Cavettella also had goals.

Spartans 8, Bulldogs 4: Jon Wittgang scored three goals and Jacob Heikinen added two to spark the Spartans to victory over the Bulldogs Monday at Plymouth.

Dane Estelmeier contributed three assists and David Girard had a goal and two assists for the winners. Brady Priest had a goal and an assist. Mike Schmidt had a pair of assists, and John Fontana had a goal.

For the Bulldogs, John Brodwin and Mike McFarlane each scored twice. Jack McCoy added a goal and an assist. Dustin Sweeney had two assists, and Brent Thomas scored a goal.

Falcons 12, Huskies 4: David Scott notched the Huskies' defense for five goals and two assists as the Falcons romped to a lopsided win Tuesday at Plymouth.

The Falcons led 4-1 after one period and 5-3 after two. Scott wasn't their only offensive weapon, either. Jesse Hudenschmidt had two goals and three assists. Brian Calka had two goals and an assist. Mike Klinger had a goal and three assists. Ralph Humphlett scored two goals. Dan Hunt and Eric Lajo picked up two assists apiece, and Troy Taylor scored a goal.

The Huskies got two goals and an assist apiece from Dominic Ceteranville and Ben Blackwood. Kyle Kasper chipped in with three assists and Ryan Lachance had two.

ON THE ROAD TO GOOD HEALTH,
IT'S ALWAYS WISE TO BRING SOMEONE
WHO KNOWS THE WAY.

No one is more qualified as a guide to healthy living than a primary care physician. And by choosing one from The Detroit Medical Center (DMC), you and your family will be assured expert care every step of the way.

To start, our primary care physicians specialize in one of four areas: family medicine, internal medicine, pediatrics or ob/gyn. This allows you to select one who best suits your needs.

And with seven hospitals, 45 outpatient centers and nearly 700 office locations, it's easy to get the care you need within minutes from your home or workplace.

Finally, and perhaps the greatest advantage of having a primary care physician from the DMC, is the wealth of resources available to you. For instance, anyone in your family can be quickly referred to a specialist if needed. The DMC provides care in 80 medical specialties and subspecialties. In fact, the DMC is renowned for specialized treatment in many areas including cancer, heart disease and birth defects.

And, thanks in part to ongoing partnerships with the Karmanos Cancer Institute and Wayne State University School of Medicine, the DMC's role as a leader continues to grow.

In short, providing your family with some of the most comprehensive health care in the country starts with a primary care physician from the DMC.

Call us at 1-800-666-3466. It's the first step toward good health. And for every step that follows, we'll be there to guide you.
