Backpacking Class
If you love the outdoors, want to get away from the campground crowds and enjoy scenery you can't see by car or day hiking, then try backpacking.

Adventure and Recreation (SOLAR) offers a backpacking class in September. The club has about 200 members who share a love for outdoor experiences and adventure.

The backpacking class consists of five classroom sessions at the Benchmark Outfitters in Farmington. The class meets from 5:45 to 8:45 p.m. every Wednesday from Sept. 4 to Oct. 2.

Two practical sessions are included in the class, an overnight backpacking trip (Sept. 21-22) and a longer trip to Michigan's Picture Rocks National Lakeshore (Oct. 4-6).

The cost of the class is $55. Participants must be club members, which requires a $30 annual membership fee.

For more information about SOLAR, call Steve Gaudin at (810) 547-4998. For more information about the backpacking class call Carol McCririe at (810) 229-5232.

LATE SUMMER CLASSIC
The 10th annual Wayne Baseball Association Late Summer tournament, for teams 14 and under, will be Aug. 1-4.

The registration deadline is July 19. The entry fee is $185 per team. The round-robin format guarantees four games. Awards will go to the first and second-place teams (individuals and sponsors). Age cut-off is Aug. 1. The rules meeting will be Sunday, July 29 at the Wayne Baseball Building, 34630 Ann Arbor.

For more information, call Jeff Auer at (313) 292-4175.

RACING FOR KIDS
The Motorsports Hall of Fame Speaker Series continues from 7-9 p.m. Wednesday, July 17, with Racing for Kids at the subject, featuring representatives from the National Hot Rod Association Junior Drag Racing program, World Karting Association, and Quarter Midgets of America.

The Motorsports Museum, displaying 75 vehicles, and Hall of Fame is located inside the Novi Expo Center, I-96 and Novi Road. It's open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. The doors reopen for all evening events from 6:30-9:30 p.m.

Admission is $8. For information, call 1-800-250-RACE.

BOBBY JONES OPEN
To benefit research on Syringomyelia, the 18th Annual Bobby Jones Open will be played July 18-20 at Eagle Creek Golf Club in Indianapolis.

Syringomyelia is a rare and crippling spinal nerve disease that claimed the life of amateur golf champion Robert Tyre Jones Jr. in 1971.

Anyone with the name Robert or Roberta Jones and guests can enter. There are an estimated 5,000 to 10,000 people in the United States with those names. In past years, approximately 300

Bobs have participated from 38 states and four countries. Because of the confusion created at the tournament, each golfer uses a nickname, usually related to his or her profession, hobby or geographic location.

For information or to register call Computer Ed at (810) 551-5800 or Janice Crawford at (810) 433-3376.

To reserve a tee time, call Dee Pyle at (313) 981-0062.

EXTREME ADVENTURE FOR TEENS
Teens can measure their metal as they embark on an extreme adventure this summer through a program offered by the West Bloomfield Parks and Recreation Department.

In this unique program, teens will challenge their strengths and abilities through outdoor adventure and teamwork. Participants will have an opportunity to climb a rock in Western Michigan, canoe on the Manistee River, fish on Saginaw Bay, challenge two unique rope courses, and test skills at archery and learn to use a map and compass.

Extreme Measures will take place Monday through Friday, August 19-23. It will include one overnight trip, but will generally meet 9 a.m.-4 p.m. daily.

All trips leave from the Parks and Recreation office in the Episcopal Church of the Advent at 3325 Middlebelt Road, just north of Long Lake Road.

Participants should bring a bag lunch each day and must also have a physical exam.

Cost for the program is $240 for West Bloomfield residents and $264 for non-residents. Call (810) 324-5660 for more information.

JAYCEES SOFTBALL
The Farmington Area Jaycees, an organization for young adults who enjoy various recreational activities and community service, are looking for men and women for their Sunday coed team.

They are also in need of players who would like to play on their Thursday night men's softball team.

To sign up or receive more information call (810) 478-3368.

ADULT HOCKEY SIGN-UP
The newly-formed Farmington Hills Adult Hockey Association will accept applications from individuals for the 1996-97 fall and winter recreational hockey seasons until Aug. 17 or until full.

This recreational-level program will be offered in four age divisions: 18 and over, 30 and over, 40 and over and over 50.

The goal of the program is to assign players to teams based on an evaluation to achieve parity among teams and give each individual an equal opportunity to participate.

The proposed leagues will consist of eight teams in the 18-and-over division, 12 in the 30 and over, eight in the 40 and over and four in the over 50.

The season will start Sept. 9 at the Farmington Hills Ice Arena with every team playing twice a week and a minimum of 42 games in the season.

Applications will be available at the ice arena, 35500 Eight Mile Road, on or before July 1. For more information call Ken Fortier at (810) 478-2583.

ADULT SOCCER STARTS
All adults (age 21 and older) regardless of skill level are invited to participate in the Farmington Soccer Club's adult pickup soccer games.

Games are played every Sunday at 5 p.m. at Caesars Field on the southwest corner of 12 Mile and Drake roads. The fields are able to accommodate plenty of players.

The pick-up style game is to encourage all players at every level of competition to get some exercise, polish their skills and experience how the game plays. Men and women players are welcome.

For information call Dale Dolech at (810) 474-8815.

PICK-UP HOCKEY
Hockey players are wanted to participate in pick-up hockey games at 5:30 a.m. Thursdays at the Farmington Hills Ice Arena. There is no residency requirement. For information call Paul at (313) 495-0297.
