out three.

"He pitched an exceptional game," Barons coach Dick Miller said. "That's an awful lot of innings, so it was a real gutsy performance."

The Barons' 11 hits included two each by Chris Karney, Burch and Viane. Burch hit a two-run double and had three RBI.

Karney, Viane, Ghanman and Todd Miller chipped in one RBI apiece. Burch also scored three runs and Karney two.

The Barons (25-5) had one league game remaining Saturday against the Kensington Valley Lakers, who were 6-3-1 with two games to play. Adrian also was in the title picture with a final 9-3 record.

Blues 2nd in tourney
The South Farmington Blues finished second in their age group (9-10) in the Brighton Baseball Tournament July 14.

The Little Caesars Federation team won four straight games before losing to the Tri-County Indians from Davison in the championship game, 9-4.

In the opener against the Ann Arbor Mustangs, the Blues rolled to a 30-1 victory.

Aaron Pauling pitched a one-hitter and batted in six runs. David Justice hit for the cycle while going 4-for-4.

The Blues followed that with a 21-1 rout of the Okemos Spartans. Tim Kalczynski and Andy Brown went 3-for-3 with three RBI each. Sean Brennan had a home run and two RBI.

David Rendi hit a towering home run and had two RBI in the third game, an 8-0 shutout of the Northville Broncos.

In the semifinal against the Novi Expos, the Blues rallied to score two runs in the sixth inning and win 8-7.

The Expos intentionally walked Brennan to load the bases with Andy Brown in second and Jeff Fischer on first. Justice stepped up and drove in the tying and winning runs.

Kalczynski had three hits and four RBI in the championship game, but the Blues couldn't stop the Indians from taking the trophy.

John Richman led the team in batting with a .700 average in the tournament. Kalczynski hit .688. Justice, .600. Fischer .588 and Andrew Anderson .500.

Eric Zarkin, Tim DeFazio and Shant Bogdanian also contributed to the success of the team.

Blues from 1C

The Blues are managed by Hugh DePaulis. The coaches are Terry Fletcher and Russ Justice.

Mays district scores
Conceded Security won its first two games Friday in the AABC Willie Mays district tournament in Rochester Hills.

The team marveled Mid-Michigan from Battle Creek in the first round, 18-2.

Anthony Volpe pitched four innings of the five-inning game, striking out nine, walking none and scattering three hits. Phillip Mabey worked the final inning.

Chris Rigley hit a three-run homer. Greg Hoching, Shaun Murray, Brian Dutton and Volpe had two hits apiece. Dutton also had three RBI, Robert Fraser two, Murray and Mabey one each.

The second game was much closer as Concord rolled from a 4-0 deficit to defeat Troy 6-4.

Chuck Rader pitched three innings, but the win went to Rigley, who allowed one hit over the final three.

Pate had two hits and two RBI, and Dan Kapala batted a 4-4 tie with a the game-winning hit.

The Blues were managed by Hugh DePaulis. The coaches are Terry Fletcher and Russ Justice.

Blues to five hits, had three strikeouts and didn't walk anybody. Matt Derocher of the Blues 16 was the only player with two hits.

"Charlie Avery pitched as fine a game as I've seen," Falvo said. "He kept us off balance with his knuckle curve. Sean Quay and Jon Marchel made some big plays and kept them in the game."

The Blues 15 scored in the first inning when Quay hit a leadoff double and scored on Bobby Austin's single. The younger Blues left the bases loaded that inning.

The Blues 16, who improved to 23-1 overall, had only two hits until two were out in the fifth inning.

Derocher singled and took third when John Lamb's grounder batted in the shortstop's head at the last moment. Derocher scored when the throw to second on Lamb's steal went into center field.

"We were the victims of a bad hop and an unfriendly bounce (in right field)," Avery said without any bitterness.

"The kids are very dejected. Those are all their buddies, schoolmates, guys they've played baseball with for years; so the loss hurts. Charlie Avery pitched a wonderful game and so did Jon Raspierski."

The Blues 16 decided to go for broke in the sixth with Fisher on third base.

"What did we have to lose -- two outs, bottom of the sixth?" Falvo said. "Charlie was throwing a tremendous game, and we didn't have a lot of runners."

"We were trying to make something happen. Chris Ghanman is a good batter; let's go for it and see what happens."

In the top of the seventh, Dave Pease walked with two outs and might have tied the score if not for a major-league play by 16 third baseman Zach Cornwell.

Cornwell backhanded a hard grounder by Quay over the bag and still threw the runner out.

"We were in a no-win situation," Falvo said. "The 15-year-olds played extremely well. Quay is a tremendous athlete with great speed, and we wanted to keep him off base."

"We've beaten nine 16-year-old teams this year," coach Avery said. "The age difference becomes less and less when kids get to be 14. In high school, it doesn't matter who's a junior, senior or sophomore; kids have to compete."

"The disappointing part is we don't get another chance at these kids for two years."

Blues rally for 7-5 win

The 13-year-old South Farmington Blues rallied from a 5-4 baseball deficit Thursday to defeat Fenton 7-5.

The Blues scored three runs in the bottom of the sixth inning to take the lead.

Mark Lundquist's two-run single put the Blues in front, and Brad Barone scored when the first baseman made an error on a ground ball by Scott Miller.

Tom Larson was the winning pitcher in relief.

Justin Garwatoski and Anthony Coratti had one hit and scored one run apiece. Lundquist had two hits and Marcus Mecotti a double.

On Tuesday, the Blues lost 13-4 to the Michigan Indians.

South Farmington had only one hit, a single by Rob Keuten, who also stole a base and scored two runs. Barone and Mecotti scored the other runs.

Girls from 1C

Levine had two hits and scored two runs each.

Gustkey scored three runs on three walks, Brittany Maxey two on two. Jamie Swartz contributed a hit and walk to the victory.

Ultimate Precision is coached by Les Taub, Rob Schrock and Dave Gustkey.
