Mission accomplished.

Compuware shredded the competition in the American Softball Association's Great Lakes Regional last weekend at Westland's Bailey Park, winning four-consecutive games with hardly a termor

The tourney triumph pushed Compuware into the 72-team ASA Nationals for 14-and-unders, in Midland, Texas Aug. 6-11. Compuware also has a date at the National Softball Association. tion Nationals July 29-Aug. 2 in Columbus, Ohio.

"Constantly, from day one, what we wanted was to improve, and we have," said Brubaker.

So it seemed. Compuware began its regional title quest last Friday with a five-inning, 14-0 mercy of Hamilton Electric (of Saginaw).

Angie Gomez was the winning pitcher, allowing five hits and Gomez and Morgan each had three hits once again to pace the Compuware offense. Andrea Hillsey and D'Agostine got two one walk in five innings, striking out three for Compuware. Gomez also had two hits and scored two runs.

Candice Morgan and Maria D'Agostino led the attack with three hits apiece, Morgan scor-ing three times and D'Agostino twice. Lisa Copeland and Sara Piepte contributed two hits each, Copeland scoring two runs.

That put Compusare up against the Queen of Diamonds, a Wisconsin team that won the regional title last year. Not this time; Jessica Brubaker shut them down in a 6-3 victory.

Brubaker surrendered three runs on seven hits and one walk, striking out five.

the game matching the region's only two unbeatens. When it was over, only Compuware could still boast that title, after its 4-2 win over the Bay City Classics.

Gomez was the pitching win-ner, tossing a five-hitter with no walks. She struck out two.

D'Agostino had two hits and Hillsey slugged a two-run triple in the fifth. Katic Lowis also had a hit and an RBI.

That pushed Compuware into the final round, against the same team it started the tourna-ment against: Hamilton Electric. The result was similar, too - a 5-0 Compuware win.

Hilleoy and D'Agostino paced the attack with a single, double and a trubus on seven hits and one walk, triking out five.

Compuware next advanced to and four strikeouts.
