

DANCING BY THE MILE

Steamer Put-In-Bay Provides for Plenty of Amusement

Fifteen miles of dancing, one hundred and fifty times around the mammoth excursion steamer, "Put-In-Bay." Passengers on the trip from Detroit to Put-In-Bay this summer will have the privilege of doing that amount of dancing on each trip. There are 8000 square feet of dancing floor space, surely those who like marathon dancing will enjoy these excursions.

The music which will be continuous will be furnished by a most excellent orchestra under the management of Mr. Finzel, who is well known among the lovers of popular music in Detroit. The orchestra will play nearly every minute of the trip and the passengers will be afforded the pleasure listening to the very best music.

"The average dancer makes four and one-half feet to every measure of music and there are about three hundred measures to every dance," says H. A. Strasburg, proprietor of Detroit's most popular dancing academy. In continuous dancing, allowing for encores there would be nine dances to the hour making for the entire trip to Put-In-Bay fifteen miles of dancing or one hundred and fifty times around the deck. These estimates are mentioned to give an idea of the tremendous size of the floor.

Authorities on dancing say that the Steamer Put-In-Bay will have one of the most up-to-date summer dancing floors in the country. Instead of the usual hardwood flooring which is very warm in summer the floor is of canvas especially prepared to make it much more smooth and far cooler than the hardwood floor.

Another decided advantage of the Put-In-Bay dancing floor is the absolute lack of obstructions there being nothing at all on the floor except the smoke stack and one stairway. The band stand is very close to the smoke stack and there are not even any chairs for the wall flowers, the dancers getting every advantage of the already largest dancing floor on any steamer and giving them every reason to thoroughly enjoy themselves. This deck is fitted out with large sliding doors which give perfect protection in rainy weather and yet can be almost instantly opened back to let in the sunshine and the fresh air. Surely this dancing floor is in perfect harmony with the other equipment of the "Put-In-Bay," the largest and most luxurious excursion steamer in the world.

"We are not planning any marathon dances yet," says Mr. O. S. Dustin, G. P. A., of the steamer line, "but with six hours of continuous dancing and with a floor that is larger than the Detroit Masonic temple floor we surely have the proper facilities if any societies should wish to arrange for such a feature."

LEGACY BROUGHT MUCH WOE

Trouble That Came on Socialist Member of Reichstag Through Bequest of Admirer.

Much amusement has been caused in Berlin, particularly among members of the Reichstag, by the history of a legacy left to a socialist member by an admiring fellow socialist at Frankfurt. This man, a bumble tailor, left all his worldly belongings to the politician as a mark of his respect and esteem for the principles of socialism. The total value of the estate was proved at about $360, which was duly handed over to the legatee. Then his troubles began. The widow, who had been separated from her husband for many years, claimed half the estate; and though her legal rights were nil, the socialist, true to his principles, gave her $175 which she asked. Shortly afterwards, the municipal authorities came forward and claimed $100 in respect that the tailor had received poor relief for some time past, and this amount was also handed over. Even then, however, the troubles of the legatee were not yet ended. One day there arrived at his home a large case, for which he had to pay $72. Refusal to accept the case was impossible, as it was explained that it contained an urn in which were the ashes of the dead tailor, who, in accordance with his expressed desire, had been cremated, with the result that his estate was liable for the crematorium fees, and the legatee was properly the owner of the ashes. The socialist member thus found his legacy reduced to three dollars, and as there is still some stamp duty to be paid he will probably find himself out of pocket before the matter is ended, while there appears always to be a risk of fresh claims being put in.

The Dog's Bath.
Short-coated dogs need grooming as well as the long-haired varieties. To keep them in good condition they should be well brushed every morning.

Opinions differ as to the washing of terriers, many people saying they should not be washed frequently, bran or sawdust being rubbed well into their coats to cleanse them; but personal experience with fox terriers proves that thoroughly washing them with good soap and warm water and a disinfectant once a week will keep them sweet and clean, and absolutely free from fleas and vermin of any description (of course, provided that bedding, etc., receive proper attention). The dog must be well dried and brushed and soap thoroughly rinsed off, especially from the ears, or it may cause cancer of the ear, which is a common complaint, and may often be relieved by shaking a large pinch of boracic acid powder into the ear three times a week.
