Being Successful

Success can be such a general term that each of us could define it differently. Just as beauty is in the eye of the beholder, success is in the mind of the individual. Blessed is the person who is pleased with his lot in life and accepts the challenges that life brings. To God, we are all successful as long as we are doing His will. In addition, to truly be a success means that we should not be complacent. We should always strive to be the best that we can be; however, accepting unpleasant events is a part of human life, and the way we deal with them can make us a better person. There is nothing that God cannot handle, and the person who turns to Him in times of joy as well as sadness, is truly successful.

I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. EJY Philippians 4:13
