Salem captures league title

It was a typical finish to the Western Lakes Activities Associ-ation golf season. Ho-hum? Hardly, Down to the wire is how it usually goes, and Tuesday's tournament at Hudson Mills Metropark Golf Course was no different Metropark Golf Course was no different.

Once again, Plymouth Salem was in the thick of things. And, once again, the Rocks emerged with a league title.

Counting last year's tie for the overall WLAA championship with Livonia Churchill, Salem has now won (or shared) in the last three. titles.

"It was close," said Rocks' coach Rick Wilson. "Right to the wire – again."

As predicted, Salem's overall depth proved decisive. The Rocks finished with 410 strokes, one better than Walled Lake Western Linning Stewards was third.

better than Walled Lake west-ern.
Livonin Stovenson was third at 415, followed by Westland John Glenn (421), Livonin Churchill (422), Plymouth Canton (426), Farmington and Walled Lake Central (429 each), North Farmington and Farmington Harrison (436 apice), Northville (437) and Livonia Franklin (451).

Northville (437) and Livonia Franklin (451). Overall medalist honors went to Churchill's Gary Kraus, who shot an outstanding one-over par 72. He and Western's Chris King were named to the all-conference team.

Earning all-division squad honors were the Rocksts' Chris Tompkins (79), Stevenson's Brett Reinhart (80) and Justin Kerr (81), Farmington's Pat Hickey (80) and Derek For (81), Salem's Jeff Lear (81) and Ryan Deschaw (82), Canton's Ben Tucker (81), and Western's Dave Kaznecki (82).

Entering the tournament—which serves as half the deciding factor in the final WLAA championahip, with dual meet victories filling the other half—five teams had a chance to win the title.

Western with a 9-2 dual teems had a chance to win the title.

Western, with a 9-2 dual record (and therefore nine points), was in the best position. Salem (8-21, 36 points), Stevenson (8-3, eight points), Churchill (8-3, eight points) and Glenn (7-31, 7.5 points) also had a shot.
"Any one of them had a chance," said Wilson. "It was the most wide-open tournament.

most wide-open tournament ever.

"We knew going in we had to win it to win the title."

That's what the Rocks did; they won the tournament and finished first with 20.5 points, just ahead of the Warriers (20). Stavenson was third (18). Glenn fourth (16.5) and Churchill fifth (15).

Salem's depth advantage: All six golfers shot 86 or better. The other scorers for the Rocks were Adam Wilson (84) and Mark Runchey and Aaron Pawlowski tobth at 86).

Western certainly came close, with Jeff Wolf (84), Kevin Jaros (86) and Mike Massey (86).

Stevenson suffered a disqualification, which cost them second place. The Spartans other scorers: Roy Rabe (88) and 16ff Lang (91).

Behind Piscopink and Tomp-

Farmington's next three scorers were John Knight (88), Jeff Thomas (89) and Ryan Wilber (90).

(90).
"We did speak to them before they teed off," Baker said. "We had been out there to practice twice, so we knew what to expect twice, so we knew what to expect going in.

"I thought they managed their games very well. Not one of our guys blew up, and that was the key."

The key to victory, again.
