

MOVIES

'The Phantom' returns to Redford Theatre

Redford Theatre is presenting the 1925 silent film classic, 'The Phantom of the Opera'...

Film classic: Lon Chaney and Mary Philbin star in 'The Phantom of the Opera' to be presented Friday at the Redford Theatre.

Tickets are $8, and available at Hammett Music in Livonia, Evola Music Centers in Bloomfield Hills and Plymouth...

In this landmark film, Chaney plays the deranged musician, Erik, who haunts the subterranean caverns beneath the Paris Opera House...

The son of deaf-mute parents, Chaney became skilled in the art of pantomime early in life. He was considered a genius in the application of make-up...

The 36min print used in this presentation was made from the master archive print by the International Museum of Photography at George Eastman House...

entrance to the masked ball, pre-arranged by the UCLA Film and Television Archives...

So costly and so well built was the five-story set of the Paris Opera House constructed at Universal Pictures for this film that it was never struck...

Tony O'Brien of Livonia has accompanied 'The Phantom of the Opera' in both solo performance and with symphony orchestras...

sense, "Evita," and "Into the Woods," and just performed the role of Susanna in "Lo Nozze di Figaro," at WSU.

The program is being presented by two non-profit groups, the Detroit Theatre Organ Society and the Motor City Theatre Organ Society...

The Detroit Theatre Organ Society, founded in 1961, owns the Wuritzer pipe organ installed in the Fisher Theatre in 1928...

GUIDE TO THE MOVIES

A large grid of movie listings for various theaters including AMC, Regency, and Star. Each listing includes the movie title, showtimes, and ticket prices.

Advertisement for 'Walt Disney's World on Ice' featuring Pocahontas. Includes showtimes for Nov 19-24 and a search game for Disney stars.

Advertisement for 'Now Showing' featuring a grid of movie listings for various theaters, including Regency and Star.