The Hawks had other wins from Lindsey Fatters in the butterfly (1:07.32) and Katherine Syoke in the 500 freestyle (6:00.3).

"It was just nice to win a dual meet," Bandy said. "It's not like it was a great feat, but it was nice to got the younger swimmers in and have them be part of it, it was a total team effort."

The Falcons hope to be among the top teams Friday in the Western Lakes Activities Association meet at Cass Benton Park.
"Our goal is to go out and do our best, she said. The league meet will be a lot more competitive this year.
"Plymouth Canton, Plymouth Salom and Livonia Stevenson have strong teams. I don't think it will be a runnaway for any team. You still need to show up and run."

Hawks win division dual

Hawks win division dual

It was a case of better late than never for the Farmington Harrison girls cross country team Monday.

The Hawks closed out the dual-meet season with their first Western Division victory, 27-28 over heat Livonia Franklin at Nankin Mills.

The Patriots had the top runner in Jenny Furlong (20:49), but the Hawks had the next three in Amy Schaner (21:32), Devron Kennedy (22:07) and Allison Best (22:40).

Franklin captured the Nos. 5-7 places, but Paula Cripps slipped into eighth place (23:28) and Jenny Sommerville 10th (23:37) to clinch the win for Harrison.

"We knew it was going to be close," Harrison coach Mark Babcock and. "Jonny Somerville and Paula Cripps are two seniors who ran well; they came on at the end of the race and helped us win it."

The Hawks finished 1-4 in the division and 2-4 in all duals.
Schaner, Konnedy and Katie Crites, who was 12th with a 4-25 time, had personal beats.
