SHE'S KNOWN

Beechview Elementary fifth-grade teacher Lori Olson Williams has been included in the fourth edition of Who's Who America's Teachers, 1996 edition. All of the 120,000 listed teacher were selected by one or more former students who themselves were listed in either Who's Who Among American High School Students or The National Dean's List.

CITY SUCKERS

Power Middle School students are part of a group 48 schools participating in the Detroit Regional Future City Contest. The middle school engineering teams will be making decisions about the ideal configuration of transportation systems, manufacturing areas, and the environment. On the basis of those decisions, they will build their versions of a futuristic urban setting.

The project is being coordinated by the Society of Manufacturing Engineers and the Engineering Society. The Detroit Regional Future City Competition is Jan. 23 at the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn.

WITH HONORS

SCHOLARLY SUCCESS

Walled Lake Western student Jerrel Mast earned National Scholar recognition by earning perfect scores of five on nine Advanced Placement examinations. The Walled Lake district includes a northwest portion of Farmington Hills.

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

O.E. Dunckel Middle School teachers Claudia Doughty and Ryan Potter will join Shell Oil and Complete Business Solutions in bringing Junior Achievement to students. Junior Achievement provides a brief introduction to the business world for students.

Workshop offers chance to be pen-pals with Santa

In preparation for the upcoming Christmas season, parents, grandparents and friends are invited to send the names and addresses of good little boys and girls they know to the St. Nicholas workshop of St. Mary's College at Orchard Lake.

In return, each child will receive a handwritten letter from St. Nicholas along with a holy card and a booklet describing the traditions and customs associated with the Christmas season.

"We feel this is one way to bring children the real meaning of Christmas," said Michael Krolewski, an administrative assistant.

This is the second year the college has sponsored this project.

"We are getting an earlier start because of the huge response we had a year ago," added Krolewski. "Many of the requests came just before the holiday, making it very difficult to reply in time for Christmas Day."

Krolewski asks that requests reach him by Dec. 10. In addition to name and address, include some personal data about the child and specify which language, English or Polish, in which the response should be made.

A fee of $5 payable to St. Mary's College should be included. Requests may be mailed to St. Nicholas Workshop care of the college at 3535 Indian Trail, Orchard Lake MI 48324.

For more information, call Krolewski at 810-683-0518.

Storyteller pays tribute to friend

Storyteller and former Farmington Public Schools educator Dinghy Sharp give a presentation at Eagle Elementary School Monday, Nov. 25.

Dinghy will present a tribute in memory of her friend and former Eagle PTA President Ruby Martin, who died recently.

Martin was one of the founders of the international program, "Bucket Brigade," which started at the Farmington district elementary school.

Sharp is picking out 12 books to donate to Eagle's media center in memory of Martin.
