League will a host forum on parties and the election

A forum on "Political Parties and the Election" will be sponsored by the League of Women Voters from 7-9 p.m. Thursday at the Niles Continuing Education Center, 201 W. Square Lake Road, Troy.

The goal is to get a perspective on the role the national and local political parties played in the Nov. 5 election, according to Karen E. Fabian, spokesperson for the Troy chapter of the league.

That election was unique in many ways, said Fabian, with a Democratic president carrying a county that in most other respects voted Republican.

Representing their respective parties are Democrat Edward Hamilton, who ran unsuccessfully for Oakland County Executive, and Republican Robert M. Gosselin. Gosselin, a Pat Buchanan delegate to the Republican National Convention, is a Troy city councilman and an unsuccessful candidate for county commissioner in the GOP primary.

for almost anyone who may be viewed as not having a life worth living."

Art Miller, D-Warren: "It's a problem for which I respect my seat-mate (Peters) for taking action. . . I am one of those 'kooks' for Right to Life. I have seen too many people fight for their life, fight to stay healthy, fight to save members of their family, and I hear the arrogance of this man (Dr. Jack Kevorkian) who calls himself a savior. I'm embarrassed. . . He defies justice, every court, every magistrate. . ."

The Senate went on to pass the main measure, SB 1102, the Dignified Death Act. Sponsored by Sen. Dale Shugart, R-Portage, it is intended to assure that doctors tell terminally ill patients their rights to accept or refuse treatment; are given immunity when they prescribe narcotics as pain-killers; and tell patients that Michigan case law prohibits anyone from assisting a suicide. It provides no criminal penalties, however, for assisting a suicide.

The Senate vote was 26-9, exactly the reverse of the vote on the Peters' substitute. The bill goes to the House, where action is uncertain before the session's end Dec. 31.
