■ ANNIVERSARY FEST
For the past 25 years, Rabbi Harold Loss, an 18th generation rabbi, has endeared himself to the families of Temple Israel, 5725 Walnut Lake Road, West Bloomfield. To honor the selfless dedication and countless contributions make by Loss and his wife, Susan, the entire congregation is celebrating with a full weekend of activities Dec. 13-15. Together with Susan, Loss will be honored with a special Sabbath service on Friday night and a gala musical review and congregational dinner on Saturday evening. The Temple religious school will offer special programs and events on Sunday. The late founding rabbi of Temple Israel, Rabbi Leon Fram, together with Rabbi M. Robert Syme, welcomed Loss into the former Detroit temple in 1971. Since then, Rabbis Paul Yedwab and Joshua Bennett have joined the staff, which also includes Cantor Harold Orbach. Rabbis Loss' ability to forge meaningful and lasting relationships has been the cornerstone of a quarter-century mutual love affair with Temple Israel, one of the largest Reform congregations in
