Gage elevated

As expected, Gov. John Engler has appointed Oakland Circuit Judge Hilda Gage, 57, of Dearborn field hills to the state Court of Appeals.

Gage was nominated by state Republicans for the State Supreme Court but finished out of the money. She will replace Appeals Judge Marilyn Kelly, a Democratic nominee who won the open seat on the high court.

Gage has chaired the state circuit judges association, been a member of the Judicial Tenure commission and served on the Michigan Sentencing Guidelines Committee. She also has served as a visiting judge on the Court of Appeals. Her term extends through Dec. 31, 1998, and she will have to run for reelection to serve the balance of the term. Her district includes Oakland, Macomb, Shiawassee and Genesee counties.

Bennett bill OK'd

The Legislature has completed work on a bill by Sen. Loren Bennett, R-Canton, to prevent people from placing false liens on property as a form of intimidation and harassment.

The Senate voted 33-0 to concur in House amendments to SB 828 and sent the bill to Gov. Engler for signing.

Law enforcement groups complained that anti-government groups placed false liens against the homes of police officers and other public officials.

"Now, not only will the property owner be notified and provided with a full and fair accounting of the facts," said Bennett, "but if an individual files a lien without lawful cause and with intent to harass, that individual may be charged with a felony offense."

Liquor bill OK'd

The House has only a few days in its lame-duck session to act on a Senate-approved bill to privatize the state liquor wholesale industry.

Senate Bill 1171, approved 34-2, prohibits the Liquor Control Commission from charging fees for "split" cases and new delivery fees, a protection for rural areas.

"This legislation ensures distilled spirits will continue to be available statewide with no interruptions in service and at no increased costs," said Sen. Willis Bullard Jr., R-Milford. The LCC currently runs 63 small warehouses. On Jan. 12, an executive order by the governor could increase the number of distribution outlets to 3,000 statewide.

SB 1171 also keeps intact a three-tier system for distribution — manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers, which must remain independent of each other. It reduces the state's markup on alcohol from 65 percent to a maximum of 56 percent.
