Madonna stars in 'Evita'

Director Alan Parker's film
"Evita," which stars Madonna, and opens Wednesday at metro Detroit movie theaters, is based on the opera of the same name by Andrew Lloyd Webber with book and lyries by Tim Rice.

Eva Peron hypnotized a nation of 18 million people for seven years before her untimely death at the age of 33 in 1952. An entirely musical film shot in Argentina, Budapest and the UK, "Evita" is observed by Che (Antonio Banderas), who chronicles the story of this woman her changed her country's history.

west of a penniless farmer in the tiny Pampas town of Junia, west of Buenos Aires. Still a teenager, Eva Duarte (Madonna) attaches herself to a popular tango singer, Agustin Magaldi (Jimmy Nail) and accompanies him to the Big City: Buenos Aires. Eva becomes an aspiring radio and film actress, eventually moving in influential circles within Buenos Aires society.

Once luor name is linked with the rising politician Juan Peron

Inspiring stories have plenty of 'Shine'

Readers shared their stories about someone who helped them "Shine," to win a CD soundtrack from the movie, and two tickets to a preview screening, "Shine" is a story inspired by the life of David Helfgott, a brilliant young pinnist whose very genius drives him to the edge of madness. Here are excepts from some of our reader stories:

—"In high school I started to 'clutch' freeze-up on math tests,' wrote Fay B. Herman of Farmington Hills. "Our 18th week (semi-final) determined whether we would take the final. alas, usually an A student, I goofed the semi. The teacher called me up to her doek and told me my final mark was already determined and insisted that I take the final anyway, though the mark would not count. I did and came Shinchien through."

The person who made many things from the Livonia Junior Football League Baseball program, and on through high school ball. He never played baseball as a kid, but brilliantly taught many kids in the Livonia system who I hoge have learned many things from this fine man."

Thus a graduating senior from the School of Architecture at the University of Michigan, worte M.R. (Miko) Ketai of Beverly Hills. It told (Professor Jones who was visiting from the University of Illinois) that I did
