

POLICE AND FIRE CALLS

Listed below are some of the Farmington-area police incidents, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week.

THEFT

In Farmington Hills:
A $250 Audiovox cellular phone was stolen from the YMCA on Farmington Jan. 6.
A $6,500 IBM lap top computer, a $350 printer and a $150 power pack were stolen from Amerisure on Halsted Jan. 2-6.

Chrome trim and wheel covers were stolen from a brown 1990 Mercury Grand Marquis on Lytle Dec. 21 causing $1,060 in damage.
Electrical connector boxes ($300), $200 in Craftsman tools, a $500 amp meter, $200 drill bit set, $250 adapter check and $450 in puller gear were stolen from a white 1997 Ford panel van at W-S Equipment Co. on 10 Mile between Dec. 31 and Jan. 6.

An $850 Panasonic Palm-corder was stolen from a residence on Indian Creek Oct. 13.
A black wallet with $350 in cash and other items was stolen from a purse in a shopping cart at the Target store on Grand River Jan. 8.

BREAK-INS

In Farmington Hills:
The passenger side window was broken causing $300 in damage to a white 1993 Dodge parked on Tulane Jan. 7 and a $230 Pioneer CD stereo was stolen.
The locks were damaged ($150) on a 1993, 1994 and 1995 Toyota Camry at Bob Saka Toyota on Grand River Jan. 6-7 and two air bags ($2,000) were stolen, one from the 1994 and one from the 1995.
The passenger window was broken ($200) of a gray 1993 Honda Accord at the Diamond Forest Apartments on Halsted Jan. 8-9 and a $200 cellular phone, $20 radar detector, $200 pair of sun glasses and golf equipment were stolen.
Two speakers ($150) and 10 CDs ($150) were stolen from a blue 1997 Jeep Wrangler at the Diamond Forest Apartments on Halsted Jan. 5-9 after the rear window had been cut ($100).
The garage door was pulled off its track ($500) and an interior door was damaged ($250) at a house on Peppermill Jan. 9.
Taken were a $700 TV, $200 Sharp VCR, a jewelry box, $400 telescope, $2,500 computer,

$1,300 in stocks and bonds, $250 snow blower and $250 lawn mower.

In Farmington:
Jewelry and cash totaling $1,200 was stolen during a burglary at a residence on the 23000 block of Lilac Street Jan. 7. A similar burglary occurred at a residence on the 23000 block of Violet the same night. Police believe both are related.
Items stolen in the Lilac Street break-in included a white gold ring and a men's navy ring and a plastic jug containing change. A $300 pinky ring, $200 high school class ring and $200 lock box were stolen from the home on Violet. The front doors at both residences had extensive damage and appeared to have been pried or kicked in.

DRUGS
In Farmington Hills:
A West Bloomfield man, 39, told police that three checks written for a total of $12,700 were cashed at the First of America from his account with a forged signature and ID between Nov. 29 and Dec. 6.

Police arrested a Mountain Home, Ark. man, 22, for possession of 19.5 grams of marijuana in a red 1993 Ford Thunderbird in the lot of the Lone Star restaurant on Orchard Lake Jan. 7.

Police responded to a report of partying with drugs at a house on Barfield at 10:35 p.m. Jan. 9 and arrested seven Hills men, ages 18-21, for using marijuana.

EMBEZZLEMENT

In Farmington Hills:
Police are investigating the embezzlement of $100,000 from a Sterling Heights woman, 39, between Oct. 1 and Jan. 7. The woman had given an agent at First Federal Realty on Orchard Lake the money towards the purchase of a gas station in Redford. The agent had told her the money would go toward the purchase once the loan had been approved through NBD Bank. The loan was not approved and the realty office was locked and the phone line disconnected when the woman's attorney tried to make contact and recover the money. Police are investigating.
