Singing smart: The "Scholars of London," an internationally acclaimed a cappella vocal quartet from England, will be performing a program at Farmington High School Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Feb. 10. This program, called "500 Years of Song," will feature music from the 15th-20th Centuries, including arrangements of British and American folk songs.

POLICE AND FIRE CALLS

Listed below are some of the Farmington-area police incidents, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week.

THEFT

In Farmington Hills: Cable wire worth $1,300 was stolen from a building under construction on Indoplex Jan. 8-14. Three Fujitsu notebook computers ($10,000) were stolen from Shinano American Corp. on 13 Mile Jan. 14-15.

A $300 .38 caliber pistol was stolen from an apartment at the Detroit Baptist Manor on 13 Mile between Nov. 20 and Jan. 4.

A West Bloomfield man, 40, told police that he put a $1,000 pin ball machine in the Cucina Mannino restaurant on 14 Mile with the agreement that the profits from it be split between the restaurant and himself. The restaurant closed and the pin ball machine had been removed with other furnishings. The restaurant owner told police did not know where it was.

BREAK-INS

In Farmington Hills: The trunk lock was broken causing $200 in damage to a 1985 silver Ford Thunderbird parked on Tulane Jan. 14 and a $20 stereo and $200 back knife were stolen.

The driver's side window was broken ($80) on a red 1988 Ford Escort parked on Purdue Jan. 13-14 and a $300 NEC cellular phone, $90 graphing calculator, $200 back pack and a $150 check were stolen.

The passenger side window was broken out and the frame damaged ($400) on a burgundy 1986 Pontiac 6000 on Northwestern near 13 Mile Jan. 14 and a $350 Audiovox cellular phone was stolen.

A hole was made through the tile roof at Carlito's on Nine Mile Jan. 14-15 and $400 in cash was stolen from two registers and a cash box and $400 in liquor was stolen from the rear office. A hole had been cut through the ductwork.

The rear door window was broken at a house on 11 Mile Jan. 15 and a $1,000 32-inch Toshiba color TV and a $250 Panasonic VCR were stolen.

DRUNKEN DRIVING

In Farmington Hills:

Police arrested a Royal Oak woman, 27, for driving a red 1992 Olds Cutlass north on Orchard Lake at 10 Mile at 2:45 a.m. Jan. 15 while drunk. The car was weaving. The driver refused to take a blood alcohol test. A blood alcohol level of .1 percent is considered too drunk to drive in Michigan.

In Farmington:

Police arrested a Melvindale man, 27, for drunken driving on Drake Road and Grand River at 1:50 a.m. Jan. 15. Police stopped the 1986 Chevy dump truck after it nearly struck the curb. The driver had a blood alcohol level of .13 percent.

Police arrested a Westland woman, 23, for drunken driving on Grand River and Grove at 2 a.m. Jan. 15. The driver had a blood alcohol level of .11 percent.

AUTO THEFT

In Farmington Hills:

A green 1993 Dodge Intrepid worth $15,000 was stolen from the Flamingo Trailer Park on Middlebelt Jan. 14.

A tan 1983 Pontiac 6000 ($2,000) was stolen from Cora Jan. 14-15.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

In Farmington Hills:

Police arrested a Hills man, 35, at a residence west of Halsted and south of 12 Mile at 12:30 a.m. Jan. 16 for punching his girlfriend, 36, in the shoulder.

VANDALISM

In Farmington Hills:

The sliding door window was broken out ($300) of a white 1995 Ford van at Otis Elevator on Interchange Court Jan. 10-13.

COUNTERFEITING

In Farmington Hills:

Farmington Hills police helped U.S. Secret Service agents arrest a Hills man, 19, for passing two counterfeit $100 bills at Antonio's Hair Salon in Farmington Hills in December and four of them in November at T.J. Maxx in Farmington as well as other incidents. He has a record of assaults and attempted rape.

FIRES

In Farmington Hills:

Firefighters put out a fire in a blue 1989 Ford Escort in the parking lot of the Kroger store on Middlebelt at 8:15 a.m. Jan. 16. The fire started in the engine compartment after it was stopped and the driver had already went into work before noticing the fire. Damage is estimated at $10,000.

SECURITY INSPECTIONS

The Farmington Public Safety Department and the Farmington Hills Police Department offer free security surveys to residents. These surveys are conducted by either a police crime prevention technician or an officer, who will come directly to your house, condominium or apartment to evaluate doors, windows, locks, lighting, visibility and other security concerns. This survey takes approximately one hour and is followed by a written report with recommendations which includes diagrams and specific cost-effective instructions for securing various parts of your home.

Call the following numbers to make an appointment for this free security survey:

■ In Farmington Hills, call the Farmington Hills Crime Prevention section at 473-9640 during office hours of 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., weekdays.

■ In Farmington, call Commander Charles Lee of the Farmington Public Safety Department Special Operations section at 474-4700, Ext. 250, between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. weekdays.
