

OU hosts volunteer fair soon

Oakland University will have its sixth annual Volunteer Fair from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 5-6, in the Oakland Center. The fair is free and open to the public.

Forty exhibitors from Oakland, Macomb and Wayne counties will be on hand to offer volunteer opportunities at tables set up in the Fireside Lounge and in corridors of the Oakland Center.

Organizations represented at the Volunteer Fair will include: OU's AmeriCorps program and Meadow Brook Hall, United Way of Oakland County, American Lung Association, Animal Welfare Society, Arthritis Foundation, Cranbrook Institute of Science, Space for Changing Families of the National Council of Jewish Women, Courtyard Manor of Auburn Hills, Mercy Corps, and Southfield's Parent/Youth Guidance and Human Services.

The Volunteer Fair is sponsored by Oakland University Campus Ministries. For more information, call (810) 370-2189 or (810) 370-2020.

TCI offers scholarships

TCI Cablevision of Oakland County is accepting applications for the 11th annual TCI Cablevision/CCA Scholarship Awards. This program grants a total of $25,000 to graduating high school seniors, who meet the established criteria.

In addition, students currently enrolled at Oakland Community College and Oakland University may apply for the awards.

Requirements for the program are as follows:

- Residents must live in the TCI of Oakland County franchise area, which includes the Eccentric coverage areas of Auburn Hills, Oakland Township, Rochester, Rochester Hills and Troy.

- Applicants must plan to attend a Michigan community college, college or university and be enrolled for the Fall 1997 semester. Applicants may also select the Specs Howard School of Broadcasting.

- Those who apply must plan to major in communications or a related discipline, such as broadcasting, journalism, radio/TV, speech or broadcasting/electronic engineering.

- Also required is a minimum 3.0 grade point average; and applicants must provide a current transcript and complete an official application form.

OCC makes music come alive

Oakland Community College's 1997 Entertainment Series presents two events on Friday, Feb. 7.

The Michigan Opera Theater performs an evening of Broadway music at the college's Orchard Ridge Campus. The show begins at 8 p.m. and the cast will be joined by local high school students singing selections from the hit musical "Joseph." Tickets are $8 and are available by calling (810) 471-7667. OCC's Orchard Ridge Campus is located at 27055 Orchard Lake Road in Farmington Hills.

One of Michigan's fine ensembles, Today's Brass Quintet, performs at 8 p.m. in the Student Center Arena of the Highland Lakes Campus. Tickets are $10 for general admission, $8 for students and senior citizens. For information call (810) 360-3186. The Highland Lakes Campus is located at 7380 Cooley Lake Road in Waterford.

Seminars on home buying in February

The Oakland Community College Department of Adult Resources, along with the Oakland County Housing Network, will hold two free home buyer workshops in February. Classes are open to the public and will meet 6-8 p.m. at OCC's Auburn Hills Campus, G Building. The campus is located at 2900 Featherstone Road, about one mile east of the Pontiac Silverdome.

First session is Wednesday, Feb. 12, and those who attend will learn about credit counseling, saving and budgeting. The next class on Feb. 19 will cover affordable mortgage products and the process of purchasing a home.

For more information, or to register, call the Oakland County Housing Network at (810) 869-0147. The Oakland County Housing Network was formed in 1994 by numerous non-profit organizations, financial institutions, the City of Pontiac, private developers and real estate professionals. The mission of the network is to provide home buying education and assist in the development of affordable housing opportunities in Pontiac and the surrounding areas.
