Defense carries CC in tourney

BY STEPHEN KOWALSKI
STAFF WRITER

Brain Teefey played defensive end on the Detroit Catholic Central football team and he probably never dreamed of taking Greg Alcan's job as tailback.

As a member of the CC basketball team, his focus is usually just as far from his brain of thought.

But Teefey's willingness to take on a new role helped the Shamrocks beat Detroit St. Martin DePorres 71-58 in a first-round Catholic League playoff game on Saturday at University of Detroit-Mercy's Chalihan Hall.

With 6-foot-10 junior center Chris Young suffering a broken nose late in the first half, the 6-3 Teefey became another offensive option in the low post for the Shamrocks. He scored nine points, making four of five shots from the floor, while grabbing a team-high 10 rebounds.

The Shamrocks expect to have Young back in the lineup - with a protective mask - for a second-round game at 7:30 p.m. Thursday against Orchard Lake St. Mary's at Schoolcraft College.

Teefey will come prepared. "It was fun," Teefey said. "I just kept doing what I had to do

BASKETBALL

- hustle, get rebounds, outlet the ball and get it up and score."

It was pretty versatile performance for a guy just hoping to make the team this year.

Teefey played on the junior varsity basketball team as a sophomore, but didn't play last winter. He's become, dare we say it, a gym rat.

"I shaped out just to keep in shape," he said. "I'm having fun now. I love to play."

Teefey was one of many unsung heroes for the Shamrocks. Also recording a career high in points was senior guard Matt Martinez, who scored 18 points on seven for 14 shooting.

Senior guard Matt McDonald overcame a slow start to finish with a game-high 23 points and sophomore guard Nick Moore showed the poise of a senior. He scored 10 of his 12 points after halftime, making five of six free throws in the fourth quarter.

Senior guard Joe Jonna scored only four points, but played the entire 32 minutes along with McDonald.

The Shamrocks jumped to an 11-2 lead to start the game but a 10-2 DePorres run and injury to Young late in the second quarter left them feeling rather helpless.

CC trailed 26-23 when Young left the game with 2:57 remaining in the first half after taking an elbow and forearm in the nose while battling for a rebound. He had scored six points and grabbed two rebounds in front of University of Michigan coach Steve Fisher before the injury.

Teefey finished with five baskets from three-point range, including four in the second half that seemed to be dropping from the Calihan Hall rafters.

Only one of his baskets in the second half came in front of the arc.

"McDonald got open and once he got going it was like a snowball effect," said DePorres coach Derrick Owens, who wasn't pleased with the Eagles 11-pointers after halftime compared to CC's six. "We had too many missed opportunities in transition, too many turnovers."

Teremun Johnson, a 6-5 junior forward, led DePorres with 18 points. Senior guard Jason Small added 11 for the Eagles, 10-7 overall.

"I was going to shoot a three, but he was playing me tight so I just decided to go around him," said Martinez, also sporting a shiner below his left eye after the game. "When I saw the shot I took it. I knew it was going in and at that point the momentum changed."

McDonald scored 18 in the second half after being held to five points on two of 10 shooting in the first half.

Smart, who scored five points, was mainly responsible for limiting the 6-foot-3 Easter to just four, only one of them a field goal.

The Hawks will play host to Northville in the first round of the Western Lakes Activities Association tournament Friday.

Harrison's junior varsity ran its record to 16-1 with a 70-56 victory over Groves, and the freshman team ended its season at 13-6 with a 66-26 win.
