

Adat Shalom discussion examines Book of Genesis

Dysfunctional families in the Book of Genesis and what we can learn from them will be the subject of Rabbi Burton Visotzky when he speaks at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 11, at Adat Shalom Synagogue in Farmington Hills.

Rabbi Visotzky serves at the Jewish Theological Seminary. He was instrumental in inspiring television journalist Bill Moyers to the concept, which formed the nucleus for Moyers' PBS documentary, "Genesis: A Living Conversation."

Refreshments will be served and the talk is free. It was arranged by Adat Shalom's Adult Study Commission, chaired by Ronna Katzman, Sharon Moss Lebovic and Beverly Phillips.
