BOOKS 1st novel a swimming success orthodox Jewish parents.
Growing up, they often wondered about their biological parents. And like most adolles of the searching for individually, they created identities of their worm modelog after celebrities.
Henkin writes: "We knew the words to all of Springsteen's songs. We cut out articles about him. He was from New Jorsey, where everyone had sex. We couldn't imagine he had eny rules at all, or that he even had parents. . We set in the living room listening to him, staring across the Hudson at New Jersey, Well swim there."
