Greenlee goes bowling to mark 95th birthday

Several years ago there was a story in this column about a 92-year-old bowler, Harry Greenlee, who was still actively bowling in the "Senior Wing Dingers" league at Country Lanes in Farmington.

It was a sort of "feel good" article, for there was a sign of a man who found his lifetime mate, Helen, back home in Indiana.

The trials and triumphs he recorded over the years made a truly remarkable story. It was also a love story, as these two people fell in love and stayed in love all through the years.

That they took up the sport of bowling is really incidental, but it was the key to the tale, for although Helen can no longer bowl, she comes along to cheer for Harry and enjoys watching him on the lanes.

It would not be noteworthy to write this story for story again, except that Harry Greenlee just celebrated his 95th birthday.

The family had a nice little party, and where else but at Country Lanes so everyone could also go bowling afterward. So there were four generations of Greenlees on the lanes at once: Harry, his son-in-law, grandson and three great grandchildren. The Senior Wing Dingers bowl on Wednesday afternoon, and our friend Harry also bowls in a Monday seniors league.

AL HARRISON

Another super senior is Clara Knight who also bowls in the same two leagues. She turned 95 last August and is still going strong. The Monday league is called "Oldies but Goodies" and this is not intended to offend anyone, so please smile as you read on.

In their recent election of officers, one member stood up and announced, "I nominate so-and-so."

Dan Ottman of Troy added more laurels to his illustrious record as he captured the latest Budweiser Michigan Major title at Parkway Lanes in Trenton, Ottman and three rookies, Chris Marshall of Lansing, Brian Walczek of University Center and Troy Stahl of Jackson were TV finalists along with Carey Bock of Bay City.

As Dan Ottman came up striking with the first 10 in a row, he easily defeated Bock 279-192. The suspense was only whether Ottman would go all the way and collect a bonus $1,000 for a 300 game. A stubborn 10-pin stopped him in the 10th frame.

He then went on to beat back Marshall with a 237-225 victory, which earned him his third MMBA title and a check for $2,500.

Other locals who cashed were Dick Beattie (sixth); Aaron Staples of Westland (ninth); Vernon Peterson (16th); Larry Walker (19th) and Rick Kien (24th) both of Garden City and Larry Franz of Redford (38th).

For information on the MMBA monthly tournaments, call Ken Charrette at (810) 775-2414.
