

Raiders thump Rocks

North Farmington produced its biggest dual-meet victory in recent years Thursday in boys track.

The Raiders didn't just beat visiting Plymouth, Salem — one of the perennial powers in the Western Lakes Activities Association.

They crushed the Rocks, 92-45, for their second Lakes Division victory in three meets.

"That just shows us we have to come to perform every meet," Salem coach Geoff Baker said.

"We went in a little too lightly, and they thumped us a good one. They took advantage of us in every event they could."

Ryan Kosutic was a three-event winner for North, taking first place in the high jump (5-9) and pole vault (5-0) and running the lead leg of the winning 800-meter relay team.

North's Cornell Colbert, Andrew Wilder, Mike Liefer and Kirk Moundros also had individual victories and contributed on relay teams.

Moundros won the shot put (43-7), Wilder the long jump (19-8), Colbert the 100 dash (11.6) and Liefer the 200 dash (23.9).

Colbert, Wilder, Ernest Yeld and Moundros combined to win the 400 relay (46.8). Kosutic was followed by Josh Callahan, Yeld and Liefer in the 800 (1:37.5).

North also won two other events as Dan Gabriel ran 2:09.1 in the 800 and Dan Jess 10:38 in the 3,200 run.

Salem's Rob Hawley won the high and intermediate hurdles with respective times of 15.0 and 42.9.

Dave Hester won the discus (188-4), Ian Seary the 400 (53.6) and Jon Little the 1,600 (4:45.3). The Rocks won the 3,200 and 1,600 relays in 8:43.4 and 3:46. Salem is 1-2 in the division. Both teams are 2-2 overall.

HARRISON 52, CANTON 56: Jason Sharpe, Chris Knox and Keith Battle had three victories apiece to lead the Hawks in the Western Division dual meet Thursday.

Sharpe won both hurdle races, running the 110 highs in 15.3 and the 300 intermediates in 44.6.

He teamed up with Darwin White, Brent Mackey and Wes Morland to finish the meet with a victory in the 1,600 relay (3:40.4).

Battle, Knox, Kevin Woods and Jared Johnson won the 400 and 800 relays in 45 seconds and 1:36.4.

Knox was the 100 dash winner (10.9) and Battle the 200 dash champion (23.8).

Harrison won three field events with Nick Shalek throwing the shot put 43.5, Joel Fodor elevating to 6 feet in the high jump and Derek Laskowski vaulting 10 feet in the pole vault.

White also won the 800 run (2:11) and Jared from the 1,600 run (4:42).

The Hawks are 3-0 in the Western Division of the WLA and 4-0 overall.

STEVENS 52, FARMINGTON 36: Freshman Ben Lukas had Farmington's only first-place finishes Thursday in the Lakes Division meet.

He won the high jump (5-6) and the high hurdles (16.8).

Stevens's Tom Glennon won the 100 and 200 dashes in 11.95 and 24.2 and helped the Spartans win the 800 relay (1:39.7).

Rob Block won the 1,600 (4:53.4) and 3,200 (10:45.7) runs, and he contributed to a Stevenson victory in the 3,200 relay.

The Falcons are 0-3 in the Lakes Division and 0-4 overall.

CATY: CENTRAL RESULTS: For the second-straight year, Detroit Catholic Central's boys track team finished runner-up at the 37th annual Jackson Invitational, held Friday, April 25.

The Shamrocks, with three individual winners, accumulated 80 points. East Lansing took first with 133 points.

David Popiel, Dan Dominguez and John Faunce were individual champions. Popiel took first in the high jump, clearing 6-2. Dominguez threw the shot put 50-6 for first place and Faunce was first in the 800 meter run (59.64).

The 3,200 relay team of Chris Laney, Craig Skaski, Wayne Briggs and Faunce took second in the Shamrock's only second place in a time of 8:25.0.

Taking third place were Corty Robison, 300 meter intermediate hurdles (1:37.8); Joe Hubert, 1600 run (4:37.8); and Griffin, 3200 run (10:02.1).

Fourth place winners included Joe Moser, pole vault (10-0); Chris Kosas, shot put (47.7); Don Stanister, 300 hurdles (43.9); and Laney, 800 run (59.78).

Earning fifth place were Brent Barlick, high jump (57-0); Andy Kew, pole vault (10-0); Mike Morris, discus (123-3); Robison, 100 hurdles (16.8); the 800 relay of Tim Finney, Tony Mahanian, Stanister and Griffin (4:35.8); and 400 relay of Finney, Keshiahlan, Derek Anderson and Jason Wohlske (47.7).

Sixth-place finishes went to Skolaki, 1600 run (4:48.8); Brian Teeley, 400 dash (53.0); and 200 dash (23.5); Hubert, 3200 run (10:21.1) and the 1600 relay of Faunce, Briggs, Finney and Laney (3:40.7).

North winners included Tricia Traczky in the high jump (4-10), Becky Naglik in the 3,200 run (12:51.2) and the 400 relay team (53.8) of Dayna Clements, Kristen Cook, Erika Anderson and Ava Lala.

The Raiders are 1-2 in Lakes Division duals and 2-4 overall.

STEVENS 52, FARMINGTON 36: The Falcons had first place Thursday in the Western Division of the WLA. Elton Adams in the 1,600 run (5:42.1) and Theresa Derwinski in the 3,200 run (12:49.1).

"We performed fairly well," Farmington coach Bruce Brown said. "I was real pleased with Brittany Blount, she went under 18 seconds (second place) in the high hurdles for the first time."

"Kelly Barente was second in the 100 and 200 with her best times of the year (13.3 and 29.5)."

Stevens is 3-0 in the Lakes Division, 5-0 overall; Farmington is 0-3 and 0-4.

GIRLS TRACK

Harrison had one other individual victory from Kerstin Andrzejewski in the shot put with a throw of 32-24.

"We had a lot more firsts than I thought," Harrison coach Mark Babcock said. "Our more talented kids did pretty well; the big point-scoring came up big."

The Hawks, who are 1-2 in the Western Division and 1-3 overall, had second places from Mayberry in the 100 hurdles (16.2) and Jemison in the 200 dash (28.4).

SALEM 51, N. FARMINGTON 37: Monica Czerwinski won two events and Melissa Gritz had a season-best effort in the discus Thursday for the Raiders at Plymouth Salem.

Czerwinski won the 100 dash in 12.8 and the 200 race in 27.5.

Gritz threw the discus 131-8, which is more than five feet better than her previous best and will strengthen her hold on the No. 1 spot in the Observer-Land rankings.

North winners included Tricia Traczky in the high jump (4-10), Becky Naglik in the 3,200 run (12:51.2) and the 400 relay team (53.8) of Dayna Clements, Kristen Cook, Erika Anderson and Ava Lala.

The Raiders are 1-2 in Lakes Division duals and 2-4 overall.

STEVENS 52, FARMINGTON 36: The Falcons had first place Thursday in the Western Division of the WLA. Elton Adams in the 1,600 run (5:42.1) and Theresa Derwinski in the 3,200 run (12:49.1).

"We performed fairly well," Farmington coach Bruce Brown said. "I was real pleased with Brittany Blount, she went under 18 seconds (second place) in the high hurdles for the first time."

"Kelly Barente was second in the 100 and 200 with her best times of the year (13.3 and 29.5)."

Stevens is 3-0 in the Lakes Division, 5-0 overall; Farmington is 0-3 and 0-4.

also contributed to a quality defensive effort, according to Shivraman.

"All of our hard work is paying off on both sides of the ball," he said.

On Friday, the Marlins earned their sixth consecutive victory and pushed their overall record to 9-2 by defeating Grose Point South at Mercy, 2-0.

Jana Kluska scored both goals with assists from Beisy and Mary Gignac. Fuller made six saves in goal.

"(South) is a good team from the East Side; they dominate their league," Shivraman said. "I was impressed by their speed."

"But our players are playing very focused soccer. They know the season is winding down, and they want to try to accomplish something significant."

HARRISON 3, N. FARMINGTON 0: The Hawks won for the third time in four games Friday, breaking a scoreless first half with three second-half goals at Harrison.

Emily Jackson scored the third goal on a direct kick from 30 yards that sailed into the upper corner of the net, and she assisted on the first goal by Erica Rice.

Oksana Petrova notched the second goal following a throw-in by Andrea Piel.

Sara Kioesterman made nine saves and earned her third shutout in goal Harrison fired 16 shots at the North goal.

"The first half was dead even," Harrison coach Glenn Breuhan said. "They passed the ball better than we did in the first half."

"The girls came out strong in the second half and played well. We had the wind at our back, which did make some difference — maybe from a psychological standpoint."

"We seemed to get into our game more in the second half. It was a little cold today, and maybe it took a while for them to warm up and get into the game."

The Hawks evened their record at 4-1 and earned a share of their first city championship with Farmington.

"We're playing much better," Breuhan said. "If we put the ball in the net consistently, we should be real tough to beat from here on out."

On Wednesday, the Hawks lost 2-0 to Plymouth Salem but held the visiting Rocks scoreless for the first 85 minutes.

After Jami Coyle scored, Harrison pushed up on the attack and gave up a second goal to Jodi Coyle with five minutes remaining. Kioesterman stopped 24 other shots.

"For us, playing against Salem, it was probably the best game the girls have played in five years," Breuhan said.

"Usually, we never get the ball across midfield against Salem, but we had some offense and passed the ball around this time. We were right in the game until they scored."

"For us, that was an accomplishment. Overall, I'm extremely happy with the way we played. We don't mind losing, but we want to be competitive."
