'Stand' for healthy kids

The Farmington Hills Commission on Children, Youth and Families has declared today, Sunday, June 1, as "Stand for Children Day."

Children Day."

The day, recognized by the Farmington City Council, is a national day focusing this year on 'Healthy Children,' featuring not only physical health but also not enough the community.

In recognition of the day, the local commission is recognizing the opportunities in the Farmington community for children this summer.

Programs include the following

Frograms include as a state of colorings:

In The Farmington YMCA hosts camps for boys and girls on day, week and multi-week programs, it also offers golf, art, inline bockey, wilderness advonture, computer science and other programs, (653-4020)

Farmington Youth Assistance provides a summer activitance provides a summer activitance provides a summer activitation.

tance provides a summer activi-ties center for ages 11 to 14, with field trips and activities, FYA also offers counseling and com-

also effore counsoling and com-munity service. (489-3434)

Toen Poer Support is a 12-week program of educational support for teens, It meets from 3:30-5 p.m. on Tuesdays. (473-1290)

■ Library events include summer reading clubs, a summer mystery program, young adult volunteer opportunities and family Internet classes. (553-0300 or 474-7770)

ity internet classes, (553-3300 or 474-7770)

Summer Impressions Day Camp offers nature, crafts, drama, swimming and more for children up to ags 9.

The Longacro House offers summer day camp from June 9 to July 18, (477-8404)

Vouth and Family Services offers field trips, outdoor activities and regular youth contentivities and regular youth contentivities at the Farmington Hills lee Arena from noon to 5:30 p.m. from Monday to Thursday, (473-1841)

POLICE AND FIRE CALLS

Listed below are some of the Farmington area police inci-dents, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week.

27.

A $325 Ameritoch cellular phone was stolen from a Pontine Grand Am on Watt May 24-27.

A $250 trampoline was stolen from a residence on Innsbrook May 24-28.

A $500 Ricch fax machine, $200 RCA VCR, a $300 19-inch Panasonic TV and a $300 19-inch Zenith TV were stolen from Sinai Surgery Center on Orchard Lake May 27-28.

A $1,000 Movado woman's watch was stolen from Judith and Phillip Salen on Orchard Lake May 15.

A woman's $250 trench coat, man's $450 belt, other clothing items ($45) and a $300 panther sculpture were stolen from a residence at the Trillium Condos on Trillium May 2-20.

A $2,700 bell computer was stolen from Compuwers on Northwestern May 19-20.

A $1250 pinky ring was stolen from TRW on Research May 8.

A $750 Motorcia collular phone was stolen from a brown 1995 Cadillac Seville parked at the One-Eleven Group on Hills

Reasons to Chiase University of Michigan

For your convenience we accept most major insurance plan M-CARE

Blue Care Network

Blue Cross/Blue Shield

Health Gare

Insurance

Presbyterian Village Redford

A Retirement Living Community with 52 Years Experience Continuum of Care Offering ...

Independent Living Apartments Independent Living Rooms with Meals & Housekeeping

Assisted Living Rooms
• Skilled Medical Facility Skilled Medica.
 Secured special care
 Secured special care dementia care

17383 Garfield Redford, MI 48240

Contact Our Admissions Office at

(313) 531-6874 Ext. 40803

INCS
In Farmington Hills:
In Farmington Hills:
Firefighters from Station 4 responded to a car fire on Lade Park at 11:05 p.m. May 27. The ongine compartment of a 1987 Pord Escort was on fire and someone attempted to put out the fire using a garden hose.
Firefighters had to force the hood open. The owner said the car had been driven earlier in the day and the temperature light had come on. The car, valued at $2,000, was totally destroyed.

IHET
In Farmington Hills:
Tires and wheels worth $2,000 were stolen from a black 1997 Dodge Avenger and a black and silver 1997 Dodge parked at Bob Saks Dodge on Grand River
May23-27.
A portable basketball hoop set ($250) was stolen from Berbiglia
Associates on 12 Mile May 23-

Arthritis Today
JOSEPH J. WEISS, M.D. RHEUMATOLOGY
18829 Farmington Road
Livonia, Michigan 18152
Phone: (810) 178-7860 WHEN TWO THINGS GO WRONG ow back plan remains as a propiem or common common and the same upon to the feet. The best ensere for the lig seedling is support hose. However, it is hard support hose. However, it is hard singularly or strings, you lose your ability to gip the social which must be fined to gip the social which must be support to the support of the social seed to support to the support of the s ways present.

Be patient when your doctor has difficulty in resolving your leg or back problems, dentifying cause and treating the same is not simple when two problems combine and Tech May 28.

A $4,000 Rolex watch was stolen from a residerce at the Farmington Square Condes on 12 Mile May 29.

In Farmington:
Two $400 lawn trimmers, a $500 blower and a $400 edger were stolen from the rear of a box van belonging to Jackson Lawn Maintenance while parked on Criss Rd. the morning of May 28.

SHEAK-HS

In Farmington Hills:
The passenger door lock was pried causing $500 in dumage to gray 1991 GMC van parked at the Print House on Commorce May 24-27 and a $25 dolly was stolen.

stolen.

A rock was thrown through a window at Buddy's Pizza on Northwestern May 28-29 and a $4,760 Dell Dimension computer was stolen.

PRAUD
In Farmington Hills:
A Hills man, 19, told police that he gave the unsigned title for his 1983 Chevy Camaro ($400) and the car to another Hills man, 24, who offered to sell if for him on March 21. After it didn't sell for two months, the man found that his signature had been forged and the title transferred to the man he give it to to sell.

We hear through a stethoscope but we listen with our hearts

Caring has always been essential to curing. Knowing your patients well and caring about who they are leads to the best possible care. At the University of Michigan Health Centers, we believe the only way to know you and meet all of your health care needs is to be in your neighborhood. It's the easiest way to help you the most. Here's what else makes us ideal for your family.

- We have plenty of family practice physicians, general internists, ob/gyns and pediatricians in your community.
- Many sites offer extended hours, including Saturdays.
- healthy. Many locations offer laboratory tests and X-rays, too.
- linked with the U-M Medical Center and our hundreds of experts.
- Finding the right doctor close to your home is simple, and making an appointment is easy. Just call the number below and we will help you select a physician and even schedule your first appointment.

We have all the services you need to stay dina sudgiplication If you ever need a specialist, you're already Canton Company digital available (Averta-La a Canton digital Ambronium Tubbonium obies Protection de briss Tubili Tubili Tubili Tubili UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN Health Centers 1-800-211-8181 inimento Gradinimi del como Gradinimi del como

NIKEN DRIVING

DRUBEN DRIVEM
In Formington Hills:
Police arrested a West Bloomfield man, 36, for driving a white Joep Cherokee on Chantilly Court at 1:24 a.m. May 28 while drunk. The Jeep had been reported on a front lawn with the motor running, the light on and the radio playing loudly. The driver rofused to talk a breath test to determine alcohol levol.

level.
Police arrested a Southfield woman, 28, for driving a blue 1991 Chevy Cavalier on Orchard Lake at 12 Mile at 2:40 a.m. May 29 while drunk. The car was headed south on northbound lance of Orchard Lake. The driver had a blood alcohol level of .16 percent.

or has a browner.
Polico arrested a Hills woman,
44, for driving a yellow 1980
Mercury Marquis on Shlawasso at Hamilton at 9:40 p.m. May 29 while drunk. The driver had a blood sleohel level of .16 percent.

blood alcohol level of .16 percent.
AUTO 14807
In Farmington Hitle:
A $33,000 white and red 1996
Lincoln Town Car was stolen from a garage on Huntsman
May 28-27.
A $2,000 red 1987 Mercury
Topaz was stolen from a drivoway on Averhill May 20-28.
VANDALISE

way on Averhill May 20-28.

VANDALISM
In Farmington Hills:
The driver's side window was broken causing $250 in damage to a marcon 1997 Chevy Astrovan at Enterprise Rent-A-Car on Grand River May 28-27.
The passenger side window was broken ($250) on a green 1993 Mercury Villager at Enterprise Rent-A-Car on Grand River May 24-27.
The north side door glass was broken ($300) at H.A. Smith Lumber on Grand River May 25-27.

27.

Horse shoes were used to break out the glass of light fixtures at the entrance of property on Hunt Club May 25-27.

Exeminator:

on Hunt Club May 25-27.

In Farmington:
The driver's side window of a 1992 Pontiac Transport station wagon was broken ($150) at Farmington Center Florist at Grand River and Grove between May 23-27.
The passenger's side window of a 1989 Chevrolot Camaro was shattered ($200) at Classic Carriages on Grand River between May 24-27.
A window was broken ($300) at a residence on Grand River the afternoon of May 27.
STOLEN PROPERTY

the afternoon of May 27.

STOLEN PROPERTY

In Farmington Hills:
Police arrested a Detroit boy, 17, for receiving and concealing stolen property after they stopped him at the Farmington Hills Market on Orchard Lake with a $74,000 Cat backhoe May 27.

POSSESSION OF MARIJUANA

POSSESSION OF MARRIMAN
In Farmington:
A 32-year-old Farmington man was found sitting in a 1989 Ford Taurus at Lansbury and Brittany Hill Drive, passed out in the driver's seat with the engine smoking and his foot on the accelerator the morning of May 29. His blood alcohol level was 18. Police arrested the man and found a bag containing 4.9
grams of marijuana in his pockct.

Sisters host groundbreaking

The Sisters of Morcy - Regional Community of Detroit in Farmington Hills is hosting a ground breaking at 2 p.m. today, Sunday, June 1, for a 85 million renovation of the McAuley Retirement Center on Eleven Mile Road.

Retirement Center on Eleven Mile Read.
The McAuley Center is the nursing home and health ear facility for eging sisters.
The first phase plens include adding eight more infirmary rooms, installing an elevator and increasing the size of the dining and living rooms. The sisters will also build a new chapel for the prayer ministry.
The number of sisters who have moved to our retirement center has increased over the last five years," said Sister Gretchen Eliott, president of the Sisters of Mercy.
"In phase two," she said, "we plan to remedel a former novi-tute so we may offer our sisters a facility that will best sorve our assisted living program."
A capital campaign has been starded to fund the project, with Cardinal Adam Maida nerving as honorary chair of the renovation campaign.
Along with Sister Gretchen

campaign.
Along with Sister Gretchen,
Furmington Hills Mayor Aldo Vagnozzi will help in the ground breaking ceremony.

Because world-class health care shouldn't be a world away.