In the evening the pastor will continue the talks on "Modern Problems," speaking on "The Problems of Modern Friendship."

Guy White Loses His Life

A very sad accident which resulted in the death of an esteemed resident of this locality occurred Monday. Guy White lost his life in a peculiar manner while at work with a threshing crew.

He was assisting to run a separator of a barn having hold of the tongue, when he was thrown violently against a water tank the tongue of the separator striking across his abdomen with terrible force. His hip was dislocated and he sustained internal injuries of such a nature that he only lived a few hours. The accident occurred at about eleven o'clock in the forenoon and he passed away at four in the afternoon.

He leaves a wife and one child besides a host of friends who held him in high regard as an honorable citizen.

He lived with his family on the Morton Phelps farm and was well known throughout this section. The funeral was held at two o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Clever Surprise on Mr. White

A clever surprise was sprung on O. Henry West manager of the Tibbets hotel in Detroit, when he returned to his old home in East Farmington last Saturday evening.

A number of relatives and neighbors had gathered in honor of his birthday. There were present Mrs. Lucy Delling, of Caro, John West and wife, of Detroit, Elmer and wife, of Novi and Ed and Minnie.

A luncheon of ice cream, cake and watermelon was served and a number of presents were bestowed on Mr. West. As the party broke up at a late hour the guests all heartily wished Henry many happy returns of the day.

Come to School Grounds Saturday and see a good ball game.

In ordering out the slot machines the council has only done its duty. It is against the law to operate them and the authorities have no legal or moral rights to allow them in the town.

During the week Charles Morningstar sold two acres with buildings on Grand River Road near the Mill Road, to Walter Strong, and two 3-4 acre lots were sold near Grand River and Monnier Roads, one to S. Johnson and the other to J. Allen. The above sales were made by Thomas Hitchman, of 212 Buhl Block, Detroit.
