THURSDAY, JUNE 26, 1997

New members elected to OU's alumni board

"Three individuals have joined the Oakland University Alumni Association Board of Directors. "Stanley A. Babiuk, of Rochester Hills, is senior vice president, Facility Planning and Projeto Development, at ANR Pipelino Company, Betroit, a large interstate pipelane serving customers throughout the Unit-ed States. Babiuk is responsible or the planning, davelopment and regulatory applications for the anning, davelopment and regulatory applications for the serving of the States and States and MBA in finance from Wayne State University.

State University. Larry J. Baylis, DO, of Clark-stön, is president of the M-16 Puthily Medical Center, PC, (jupteson, Baylis earned a bach-eloy, degrees in environmental health from the University of Michigan School of Public Haulth and the Chicago Collego of Detopathic Medicine. He is on the board of directors for-Baker Collego, the Carkston Ambulatory Care Center, and is affiliated with the North Oak-land Medical Centers, Oakland Physician Network, SL, Joseph Merry Hespital and Wayne State University School of Medicine.

Joseph Angileri, of Franklin, is partner in charge, Michigan Tax Practice, Deloitto & Touche. He earned a bacholor degree in busi-ness management from OU and a law degree from Wayne State University. He is also a certified public accountant. Angileri is treasurer of the board of directors of Goodwill Industries, a Detroit nonprofit organization. He is active in sev-eral professional associations, including the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants, American Bar Association and the State Bar of Michigan-Tax Division.

trict Court; John Flick, El Paso, Texas, (immediato past chair), vice president and general man-ager, Pollak Corporation, Randal Goldon, of Orthard Lake, (steer-ing committee member) execu-tive vice president, D.O.C. Optics Corporation.

Corporation. New alumni affiliate represen-tatives: James Getchell, of Shel-by Township, manager, Produc-tion and Logistics, General Motors Corp.; John Ganfield, of Bleomfield Hills, vice president, NBD Bank; Bradley Driscoll Jr., of Rechester Hills, chairman, Mid South Data Systems; Jacqueline Long, of Watorford, manager, North Oakland Medi-cal Center; Melanie Brown, of Southfield, logislative aide, Office of Senator Gary Peters.

Bar of Michigan-Taz Division. The OUAA Board of Directors also elected Marianne Fey, of Birmingham, as chair. Fey carned hor bachelor of arts degree in communication arts in 1980 from Oakiand University.-Fey is now senior vice president and managing director of McCann-Brikson. She was recog-nized in 1997 by Crain's Datroit Business as one of Michigan's 100 Most Influential Women. She also received the 1994 Woman of the Year Award from the Women's Ad Club of Detroit. Office of Senator Gary Peters. Oakland University is a stato-supported institution of higher oducation located in suburban okaland County, Michigan. OU offors undergraduate pro-grams in 45 areas. Dedicated to proparing learn-ers for the 21st-century work-place and society, the university is organized into the College of Arts and Sciences and the schools of Business Administra-tion, Education and Human Ser-vices, Engineering and Comput-er Science, Health Science, and Nursing Other elected officers: Daniel Medaw, of Huntington Wooda, (vice chair), president, Standard Distributing, Inc.; James Wilbort, of Troy, (troasuror), managing partner, Coopers & Lybrand; Leo Bowman, of Ponti-ae, (secretary), judgo, 50th Dis-

(OF)A15

Child protection bills passed

State Capitol capsules:

Child safety bills

"Three bills to protect children have been passed by the state Senate and sent to the House. They are

They are: .11.SB 532 — to require State Police to check criminal records before license are issued to child care organizations and their employees, "Parents will appre-ciato the peace of mind that comes with having additional cantrol over child care options," said the sponsor, Son. Mike Bouchard, R-Birmingham. ISB 113. - to make it a crime to knowingly allow another per-son to harm a child either physi-cally, mentally or ascually. Max-imum penalty is 15 years in prison. Sponsor is Bouchard. ISB 35.1 - punishing a par-ent who conceals income from the court in a child custody case. Penalties: up to four years in prison and a fine of up to $2,000. Current ponalty is limited to contempt of court, said the spon-sor, Sen. Bob Geake, R-Northville, adding that enact-ment will "make deadbeat par-ents more accountable." Refer to bills by number when writing to your state representa-tive, State Capitol, Lansing ($909.

Do a broad search for the car and the boat and a narrow search for the job.

Or the other way around. That's the buying scene.

The selling scene is way cool too, because this is the first place where the whole world can search for the stuff you're seiling. AD VILLAGE lets you place a classified ad directly on the net and you know how many people we're talking about here. Millions. AD VILLAGE is affordable.

Actually, it's cheap.

To find out just how cheap, call

1-800-579-SELL

Or e-mail your ad at welcome@advillaae.com Or FAX your ad to 313-953-2232. It's your call.

> Δ G THE INTERNET CLASSIFIED MARKETPLACE