STOLEN PROPERTY
In Farmington Hills:
 Police were called to a Robison Street residence on the report of a man being depressed and suicidal on June 20. The man was arrested for possessing a stolen .44 magnum. When asked if he had any weapons, the man showed officers where they were kept. Police found a .22 and a .45 caliber pistols, which were registered to him. The .44 magnum was not and the man said he bought the gun for $50 from a guy in a Toledo bar. The Ruger Rothand pistol was reported stolen in 1990. According to the man's girlfriend, he threatened to kill his wife prior to the arrival of the police. The woman told police the man said he would shoot his wife if she came home during the next hour.

SHOPLIFTING
In Farmington Hills:
 Three Farmington Hills girls, ages 12, 12 and 13, were taken into police custody after an attempt to steal more than $300 in swim wear from Kohl's on Grand River June 20. Store security saw the girls take bathing suits into a Mickey Mouse bag and a purse and stopped them when they tried to leave the store. The juveniles were turned over to their parents.
 A man was seen loading a $279 Quartet comforter into a Ford Escort outside Bed, Bath and Beyond on Orchard Lake June 22. The man was wearing an apron similar to those Bed, Bath and Beyond employees wear.
FONDLING
In Farmington Hills:
 The mother of a 5-year-old

Farmington Hills boy said her son told her he had been fondled by a man who works at Farmington Community School June 4. The mother added that her son has been known to make up stories and, at one point, said he lied about the incident.
