That Big Rally Went Off Without A Hitch--GOP

By LEONARD POGER
Most voters never get a real splance to get a personal look at a presidential candidate during a national campaign.
But an estimated 12,000 persons proved to be the exception last week when Republican nominee Richard Nikon brought his campaign to Roma Hall in Livonia.

Suburban voters have a day and and heard quite a bit about Nixon's smooth-running campaign, the beavy expenses incurred for his quest to gain white House occupancy, and his remisal to get specific about rida-mation's problems -- and aspecially answers -- during the current campaign.

To give Observerland residents a peek into what went on before, during and after Nixon's visit to Livonia -- het first by any presidential candidate -- local political figures were asked about the various associes of the raily, in CONTRAST TO campaign problems incurred by Demo-

In tact, there was so much cheericading going on without any hocklers opposed to Nixon, the Vietnam War, police brutality or anything else, the rally took on more of an air of a high school pep rally before a big football game with cross-town rivals.

The balloons were plentiful, placards everywhere, the Nixon girls pretty and wholesome looking.

This is what was seen on the surface.

What were the problems be-hind the scenes?

DESPITE THE myrladdetails to be handled, Mrs. Delores Kory, 19th Congressional District chairman for the GOP, said that the whole thing went smoothly, thanks to the volunteer labor by Republican workers.

smoothly, thanks to the violutieer isolor by Republican workers. The only dark spot was the reduced of the area school officials to allow high school officials to allow high school bands to play at the rally. But there was a professional Dicisland band on hand, and no one complained about a lack of music.

She did point out that Nixon and his entourage arrived at Roma Hall about 30 minutes behind schedule because of an account of the control of the con Friedrichs cited the work Livonia's three representatives have done in getting County Road Commission cooperation on road improvement projects, And, as well, the aid Ply-mouth's supervisor, Archy-liter, gave the new sherilf, Ro-man S. Gribbs, when he took over.

FRIEDRICHS, director of secondary education for Livonia public schools and former principal of Bentley High School, has said he would form a citizens advisory group so the present supervisors could keep in close contact with the county.

MRS, KORY was delighted with the results of the rally, which pulled in more persons than Nixon's railies later that day in suburban Warren and Southfield.

The agents were present on the platform during Nixon's speech but Republican partisans of all ages were able to get toolse and shake his hand following his 20-minute talk. There was also no problem on getting press credentials, Only a social security number was requested of each local reporter and no effort was fined to check a driver's license

In the crush of photographers in front of the platform, there were saveral young faces with instanatic cameras, sirahing for a close-up of their hero. The cost of the whole bling? No one in the district knows because the aditional Nixon committee and the GOP State Central Committee fooled the bill. But as Henry Stadek, Wayne County Republican Chairman, said, "I don't know (what the cost was), but If I did I wouldn't bell."
