A VIRTUOUS HOME

In the home, virtues such as love, compassion, honesty, trustfulness, kindness, and generosity are mostly learned by example. Families living together develop and learn by what they see around them; children are especially quick to imitate the behavior of their parents or older siblings. And, the old saying, "Do what I say, not as I do," usually does not have a long-term effect on anyone. A home can be described as a place where someone lives and it doesn't matter if it consists of one person or ten. A house is just a building, but a home is made up of loving, caring, virtuous people. Reading the Bible, trusting in God, and praying are the best ways to instill the virtues within a home that are pleasing to God. Home is where we should be comfortable, relaxed, and safe, and a place where the presence of the Lord is always there with us.

Jesus answered him, "Whoever loves me will obey my teaching. My Father will love him, and my Father and I will come to him and live with him."
