Doubting Thomas

When I was in high school, a favorite saying of one of the teachers was, "I'm from Missouri, show me." It seemed that she would never believe anything unless she actually saw it for herself. The apostle Thomas said that he wouldn't believe that Jesus rose from the dead unless he could see and probe the wounds that Jesus received when he died on the cross. After he saw Jesus, and felt His wounds, he truly believed and stated, "my Lord and my God." Jesus told Thomas that he believed because he had seen, and He said, "Blessed are those who have not seen and still believe." The Bible tells us that faith is to be certain of the things we cannot see, and that no one can please God without faith, for whoever comes to God must have faith that God exists and that He rewards those who seek Him. I once heard that for those who are "doubting Thomases" and do not believe, no explanation is possible; for those who do believe, no explanation is necessary.

We don't have a checklist.
Unfortunately, many people think you have to conform to some man-made checklist to belong in a church. I don't. I want to accept people for who they are. We are people just like you, pursuing a relationship with God and one another. Try us!
