

Where can I find?

This feature is dedicated to helping readers locate sources for hard-to-find items in the marketplace. If you've seen any of the items in your retail travels (or basement!) please call Malls & Mainstreets at (248) 901-2567. Just leave a message and your phone number (slowly and clearly, please!) and each Sunday we'll print caller solutions and new quests.

What we found:

- A source for Mary Proctor ironing board covers and accessories was suggested by several readers. Write to: Gustin-Kramer Company, P.O. Box 628, Bolton, MA 02135. They were also spotted at Adray's in Dearborn.
- A caller said the F & M pharmacy will special order Lowilla soap for customers.
- A reader had the plaque with six hooks that reads "Look who's in the doghouse now," for Mary of Farmington.
- The Muxie Stand catalog company has the Grease cassette tape for $10.95, call 1-800-717-7010.
- Dare perfume by Revlon was spotted at Big Lots and Odd Lots stores, and Jungle Gardenia was recently purchased at Arbor Drugs, Birmingham Drugs and Melja's.
- Men's garters for Mrs. Smith were spotted at Harry's Department Store on West Warren.
- Melja's has the Swiss Ives formula body washes in chocolate and vanilla according to one reader.
- A caller saw the train telephone at The Train Store at Somerset Collection North, and in Scardner's catalog 1-517-848-2922.
- One reader pointed out that The A-Team television shows are being aired on the FX cable channel and can be easily taped.
- A great substitute guide for the nutrition book once published by the Dept. of Agriculture in Boies and Churches Food Values of Portions Commonly Used by J. B. Lippincott available at Borders, according to one reader.
- Two callers reported that the book Behind the Green Door and also a movie of the same title, are available and were put in touch with the searcher. Another caller found a source for a Johnny Appleseed biography on the Internet and her bookstore was passed on to the searcher.

Still searching for:

- A retailer who sells Clove gum for Linda.
- A Daily Aide Journal once carried by Woolworth's. "It was my secretary for 20 years," said a caller.
- Someone who'll assemble wooden doll houses from a kit for Susan.
- Who still sells record players for an elderly woman who wants to play her old 33 1/3 records.
- An Address-O-Graph machine that types on metal or dog tags for Sue and Nancy of Troy.
- Vinyl reinforcements to repair the holes in shower curtains for Lorraine of Livonia.
- Bob-Lo memorabilia for Karen of Royal Oak.
- A group of moms of college kids want to send them: an 8-inch hammer winner handle contains a variety of screwdriver tips that can be placed on the handle to transform it into a screwdriver, plus, a Helmac fabri-comb to defuzz sweaters. Where can they buy this stuff?
- A place to buy the original Gucci perfume in the brown box which is no longer manufactured for Patti Frabotta.
- A retailer who sells replacement lids for the corningware browning dishes.
- Where to buy Mennen shave tale for guys who use electric shavers.
- A retailer who sells Coty Vitamin A & D night cream and Coty Vitamin Moisture Balancer for Shelley of Plymouth.
- Touche cologne by Jovan for Ginny Jacobs of Livonia.
- A copy of the book Hanta Yo, an American Saga by Ruth B.B. Hill for Lois Dawson.
- A copy of the film King Creole starring Elvis for Kevin.
- A grocer or market in the Birmingham area that sells canned goods without sodium for Sarah Zisman.
- A copy of the children's book Brave Little Indian, for Nancy Torossian of Plymouth. Published by Holt, Rinehart and Winston.
- A Marilyn Monroe watch for Debbie.
- A tape of Eddie Money's Nothing To Lose for Bridget. "Mine broke and I'm lost without it," she said.
- Little glass wing chimes, very inexpensive, in geometric shapes, with a small little tinkling sound, for Toni of Livonia.
- A place to buy Coty Lipsticks for Charlotte Syversen, specifically #24.
- Who still sells sterling silver keys that wind up the toothpaste tubes for a reader. "Tiffany's used to make them," she said.
- An eelskin wallet that has a zipper in the middle compartment about 7" x 4" for My Perry.
- A store that sells Pirelli rubber gloves for Dean. "We used to get them at Lechter's or Bed, Bath and Beyond, but they're not there anymore," he said. "They were very durable and well-priced."

Target stores offer college scholarships

Target Stores announced that applications are now available for its $1.6 million All-Around Scholarship program which will provide more than 1,500 high school students with money to help finance their post-secondary education.

Now in its third year, the program will provide funding to students who demonstrate leadership and all-around citizenship in community, family and school activities.

Two scholarships will be distributed by Target store. The program will award more than 1,500 $1,000 scholarship and four $10,000 scholarships.

The All-Around Scholarship program was created in direct response to Target guests' concerns about the importance of education, the rising costs of college tuition and the future strength of communities across the country.

High school seniors may pick up applications at their local Target store.

Completed applications must be postmarked by Dec. 15, 1997.

A panel of independent judges will review applications, and recipients will be notified on or about May 15, 1998.

Scholarships will be awarded to the winners at store ceremonies in late spring of 1998.

Criteria for Target All-Around Scholarship applicants include:

1. Description of the length of time and number of hours of community volunteer service;

2. The applicant's list of volunteer leadership awards and honors;

3. Appraisal form to be submitted by a supervisor or volunteer leader;

4. The applicant's short essay on volunteer service;

5. A transcript verifying a grade point average of C (2.0) or higher.
