Rochester staggers Harrison in 58-34 defeat

Everything was going just fine for the Farmington Harrison girls basketball team at the start of its game Tuesday.

But the early momentum faced as the Hawks gave way to host and state-ranked Rochester in an eventual 58-34 defeat.

It was the second straight loss for Harrison (4.2), which starts Western Lakes Activities Association play tonight at Livonia Stevenson. The Falcons are 7-0.

"We played a great six minutes," Harrison coach Pete Mantyla said, and the Hawks we were absolutely horrible; we just foll apart."

Harrison's Amy Roble and Mahagany Fletcher picked up dailing the Hawks had trouble plassing and catching the ball.

Rochester outscored Harrison of what we're trying to do store much, more than we're capable of doing '16' harrison could be said and the Hawks were never in syna eggin.

"At the start of cvery game, we say we're going to run the rules of our press, pass and catch the start of our press, pass and catch the start of our press, pass and catch the land offensively, and that's a terrible of the same of the start of our press, pass and catch the land get a shot every time where the line is tonight.

ter, but maybe we can learn from it. If we can get better, it will have been worthwhile."

The Spartans took a 4-0 victory with two goals by Ryan Browsen or with two goals by Ryan Browsen or Real Control of the Spartans on the Spartans on the Spartans.

They also had five yellow cares and one red, according to North coach Ron Meteyer, who was unsportamenlike behavior by the Spartans.

Meteyer said the Spartans were excessive in their tackling methods.

Tim real proud my kids kept their cool and didn't retaliate, Motoyer said. Somebody is going to get hurt. There's no reason for that. Somebody has to speak out against this.

The Raiders, who trailed 3-0 at halftime, had much better pressure in the second half and didn't let the trash talking affect them, according to Meteyer.

There were no cards issued to North players, he added.
The Raiders (5-2) defeated visiting Millord Saturday with four goals from Craig Hearn, 6-0.

Tony Ciaramitaro and Dave Boave at up the first goal by Hearn at 7:28 in the first half, and Joe Shargorodsky's pass Mondey.

The senior forward, who leads the Rocks in scoring, scored his 10th, 11th and 12th goals. Junior Aeron Rypkowski added a pair of goals for Salem (7-0).
The game ended with about 10 minutes left in the second helf because of the mercy rule.
