Knowing Right From Wrong

We live in an ever changing society and we may feel that because everyone is doing something, it must be right. However, "wrong" has a peculiar way of disguising itself. It may take on the appearance of a need, a duty, a convenience, or even revenge. When we do something wrong we hurt ourselves, even when we think that, "no one will ever know." Our Heavenly Father has given us life and a free will, and every day we are faced with taking responsibility for our actions and knowing right from wrong. Inside of everyone, is God's Spirit that tells us good from bad, and if we listen to that small voice we can usually recognize what is right. God's laws are unchangeable, and He knows that because we are not perfect, our actions may not always be proper, however, God's love for us and our repentance will always lead to His forgiveness.

You may think that everything you do is right, but remember that the Lord judges your motives.
Good News Bible Proverbs 21:2
