Angler wins tourney

Who says fishermen are superstitious?

Just because Dave Result had his "lucky" teal shirt on and sported a "lucky" day-old beard when he won the Red Man Regional championship last weekend on Kentucky Lake in the bluegrass state of Kentucky isn't reason to jump to a conclusion.

Or is it?

Result, of Livonia, qualified for the regional bass fishing tournament by placing in the top 30 in the Red Man Michigan Division, which featured six tournaments over the summer. The top eight finishers in the regional advance to the Red Man All-American, which features a cash stipend of $100,000 for the winner. Result's goal heading down to the regional was simply to qualify for the All-American, May 25-30, on the Mississippi River at LaCrosse, Wis.

He easily accomplished his goal, and then some.

Result topped a field of 111 anglers to win the regional crown. He weighed a three-day catch of nine fish which tipped the scale at 33 pounds 6 ounces. Result won a Chevy pick-up truck and a fully-rigged Ranger bass boat powered by an Evinrude outboard. The package is valued at $40,000. On top of that, the 40-year-old real estate broker won $1,500 in a double-up bet as well as a four-day marlin fishing trip in Cabo, San Lucas.

Lady Luck was certainly on his side.

On the first day of the tournament Result wore his "lucky" teal shirt and was in third place by the end of the day. He changed his shirt on the second day, managed to catch just one keeper and slid to eighth in the standings.

"I wore that shirt the first day and did pretty good. The second day I didn't wear it and I didn't do very well," explained Result. "On the third day I decided, even if it did smell a little, I was wearing that shirt."

BILL PARKER

Result also decided to skip his daily morning shave, explaining, "because I wanted everything to be in my favor."

Late on that third and final day of the tournament Result had three fish in the boat.

"I'd been doing pretty good slow-rolling spinner baits, but decided to switch to a Yamamoto Hula Grub and I picked up my fourth fish...With about an hour left I got hung up on something and was trying to shake it loose," he explained. "I went over to where I was snagged and popped it loose. As soon as it popped free, I felt something hit and my boat went right to the water. I mean he was right there, I had him only on about five-foot of line."

What Result had was a 6-pound, 4-ounce lunker that gave him his first daily limit of the tournament and pushed him over the top. Result edged second-place finisher Jim Bryant of Kentucky by a mere 3 pounds, 2 ounces.

"That last fish, the one that won me the tournament, was a gift from someone," said Result.

Apparently, that someone likes the color teal.

Workshop reminder

There is still time to register for the Project F.I.S.H. Workshop, scheduled for Nov. 7-9 in Jackson. The weekend workshop is intended to show adults how to organize a community youth sportfishing club.

The workshop will be held at Camp McGregor and begins at 6 p.m. Friday, Nov. 7. Cost is $60 per person and $65 per person for a team of two or more. Fees include lodging and all teaching materials. Registration deadline is Oct. 31.

For a registration packet or more information contact Mary Jamieson and MSU at (817) 453-0308 or jamieson@pilot.msu.edu.

Anglers and hunters are urged to report their success. Questions and comments are also encouraged. Send information to 805 E. Maple, Birmingham, MI 48009. Fax information to (810) 644-1314 or call Bill Parker evenings at (810) 901-2573.
