How Much "Personal Baggage Do You Have?"

It seems that as we grow older, we all accumulate personal traits, ideas, and habits that accompany us through life. Some people may call this "personal baggage", and if we want to accept an individual as a friend, co-worker, or spouse, we have to accept their distinctive characteristics as well. Although the term "personal baggage" may have a negative connotation, it depends on the individual and often is associated with something very good. As we grow older, one may gain many positive traits such as wisdom, experience, patience, etc. Some feel that people can't change once they reach adulthood. However, the Bible tells us that when anyone is joined to Christ, they are a new being; the old is gone and the new has come. Hear what God says: "When the time came for me to show you favor, I heard you; when the day arrived for me to save you, I helped you." Listen! This is the hour to receive God's favor; today is the day to be saved! (2 Corinthians 6:2)

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold, all things become new.
1 Cor. 5:17
