

OBITUARIES

ELIZABETH COX

Elizabeth Cox, 80, died Nov. 9 at Botsford General Hospital. A longtime resident of Farmington, Mrs. Cox was the owner of Flamingo Mobile Home Park in Farmington Hills from 1961 to 1986 and a member of The Priessilla Circle of Lutheran High School Associates.

She is survived by husband, Thomas; sons, Rod (Eather) and Larry (Paulette), both of California; brother, Pete Ellers; and grandson, Jonathan.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. today, Nov. 13, at Thayer-Rock Funeral Home in Farmington with the Rev. Theodore Daniel officiating.

Memorial contributions can be sent to the Karmanos Cancer Institute, 41935 W. 12 Mile, Novi 48377; or the American Cancer Society 29350 Southfield Road, Suite 110, Southfield 48076.

STANLEY TOLBERT JR.

Stanley Tolbert Jr., 78, died Nov. 8 at his home in Walled Lake.

Born in Chicago, Ill., Mr. Tolbert earned a mechanical engineering degree from the Illinois Institute of Technology and was an Army Air Corps veteran.

After completing Aviation Cadet School and Aviation Technical School at Yale University, he entered B-29 training in Seattle and was stationed at Lawry Field in Denver where he met his future wife, Mary Beth Killey.

Mr. Stanley remained in the Air Force Reserve until his retirement in 1970 as a lieutenant colonel. He worked for Texaco Inc. and was a scoutmaster for 10 years.

He is survived by children, David, Bruce, Susan (Tom), Daniel (Laura), John (Barb), Sheila (Mark) and Gayle; and grandchildren, Courtney, Reed, Dayna, Kimberly, Allison, Natalie, Jack, Ashley, Justin, and MaryBeth.

Funeral services were held Nov. 11 at McCabe Funeral Home in Farmington Hills.

Memorial contributions can be sent to Cranbrook Hospice or Boy Scouts of America.

WILLIAM L. AITKEN

William L. Aitken, 84, died Nov. 7 at Providence Hospital in Southfield.

Mr. Aitken worked as an executive for the General Motors Overseas Division. He was a member of the GM Senior Men's Club, the Birmingham Senior Men's Club and the Stoneycroft Hill Golf Club.

He is survived by son, John (Marianna) of Kansas City, Mo.; daughters, Lily Jane Woods of Farmington Hills and Christine Frances Aitken of Bloomfield Hills; sisters, Frances Aitken of Birmingham, Jean Chanay of Birmingham and Madge Griessbach of Waterford; grandchildren, Christina, Jennifer, Sara, William and Jason; and great-grandchildren, Madelyn and Connor.

A private memorial service will be held.

Memorial contributions can be sent to the Make-A-Wish Foundation, 913 W. Holmes, Suite 111, Lansing 48910.

Land Rover opening drives week of celebration

Join Land Rover of Farmington Hills for a weekend of celebrating its grand opening this week on Grand River, just east of Haggerty Road.

On Thursday, visitors can enjoy "Hunting... Right in Our Showroom," created through the interaction of Ducks Unlimited. And, wildlife artist Bob Parish will demonstrate his creations and visitors can register to win a shotgun.

On Friday, "Camping for Everyone" offers visitors demonstrations on rock climbing, global positioning systems and compass reading, kayaking and how to load and unload boats on Land Rovers.

"It's Wild - Bring the Kids" is the name of Saturday's events, with visits by full-size Siberian Tigers, African Lions and more exotic animals on display. Also, Daphnie Green, the only woman to compete in the Camel Trophy, the Olympics of 4-wheel drive, will show slides of her 1995 U.S. Team Competition and offer tips on outfitting for the great outdoors.

The Farmington Hills site is the largest Land Rover Center in Michigan, with a full service department and an on site test track. For more information call 474-9900.

Diamond anniversary

The Diamond Boutique of Farmington recently celebrated

24 years of business with an anniversary sale. The store, which is owned by Hayk Keyevan, is located at 37105 Grand River. Call 478-3131 for more information.

Prowler for charity

David Fischer's Farmington Hills Chrysler-Plymouth-Jeep-Eagle is donating a rare 1997 Plymouth Prowler for a raffle to benefit Cornerstone Schools of Detroit. The modern hot rod is one of only 16 introduced in the state, and one recently sold at an auction in Indiana for $141,000. Cornerstone Schools operates four elementary and middle schools in Detroit. "This car gets unbelievable attention from everyone, especially the kids," Fischer said. "So it's fitting that the children of Cornerstone should see the benefit from this raffle."

For details on purchasing raffle tickets, call 1-888-767-7770. The drawing is Dec. 10.
