CLARIFICATION

The headline on a story in the Thursday, Dec. 4, issue of The Observer & Eccentric should have said: "Kids with abused moms may suffer from post-traumatic stress disorder."

The word "abusive" was incorrectly used instead of "abused."

The article was about a University of Michigan study of 64 children whose mothers had been emotionally or physically abused.

Schulling-Moss

Jacqueline Moss and David W. Schulling were married Oct. 4 in Telluride, Colo.

The bride is the daughter of Joanne Moss of Birmingham and David R. Moss of Bloomfield Hills. She is a graduate of Seuholm High School and Princeton University.

The groom is the son of Susan G. Coy of Hudson, Ohio, and Judeon P. Schulling of Grand Rapids. He is a graduate of Forest Hills Central High School and the University of Colorado in Boulder.

A reception was held at Gorrone Ranch. The newlyweds honeymooned in Hawaii, and they are making their home in Telluride.
