FELONIQUE ASSAULT

FEIONIOUS ASSAULT
In Formington Hills:
A Farmington Hills postal delivery worker told police he will press charges after two youths, both age 16, shot at his telivery wolkele with a BB gun and air rifle around 2:40 p.m.
Friday while he was on rounds in the 28100 block of David Street. The driver was not hit and there was no apparent damsige to the vehicle, but he said he felt threatened by the incident and feared possible injury.
WELFARE CHECK

WELFARE CHECK

ANTLANE CHECK

In Farmington Hills:

A 17-year-old Novi female clad sayly in a bre and blue jeans fled dier beyfriend's deep outside the glonavonture Skating Center, 24506 Halsted, following anyparent argument in which he ripped off her shirt. Police later plant the shivering woman hidding behind bushes on Halsted, behind bushes on Halsted, health of Hallwood Court about in hour later. She was taken to Frovidence Hospital where she statud there was no aexual or holysical assault. Her father, however, told police there had been previous problems involving the teen and her boyfriend at her residence.

RRUMKEN DRIVING

In Farmington Hills:

Police charged a 63-year-old Detroit man with drunken drivity Sunday about 3:30 a.m. after a 1993 Geo Prizm was seen weaving on eastbound on Grand River. He had a blood-alcabel level of 13 percent. The limit in Michigan is 10 percent. Hills police arrested four people for drunken driving Dec. 27-28.

In Farmington:

A 28-year-old Farmington man was arrested early Saturday for driving under the influence of inchel. According to police reports, he was driving at a high rate of speed on weatbound Freedom near Farmington, at a bout 2:30 a.m. The motorist finally stenged at Farmington, at a bout 2:30 a.m. The motorist finally stenged at Farmington at a being from inside the car and that the driver's eyes were bloodshet. He aubsequently struggled with various roadside field tests and a preliminary breath test revealed a ploid alcohol count of .14 percent a blood alcohol count of .14 per-cent.

A 32-year-old Taylor man was arrested early Saturday for driv-ing under the influence of alco-hol. He was driving erratically on westbound Grand River when spotted by police. Following a traffic stop, at Lakeway Street, efficers detected signs of drunk-en driving. The driver had diffi-culty with various readside field tests and a preliminary breath test revealed a blood alcohol count of .13.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY
In Formington Hills:
A 25-year-old Dearborn Heights woman told police she was injured in a fight at the Cadillac Cafe, 30556 Grand River, early Saturday morning.
The woman said she was thrown

It's Worth The Wait!

Fur Clearance Time SAVE 12 50 % * more On 3,000 "Dittrich Quality" Fur

ittrich

POLICE AND FIRE CALLS

POLICE AND

taken from a black 1197 Dodge Rmm PC 1500A belonging to a Farmington Hills-based heating contractor in an apparent attempt to ateal the vehicle
while it was parked at the River Valley Apartments on Nine Mile Road around noon Saturday. The locked vehicle was broken open with a scrawdriver and $1,500 damage was done to the steering column by the thief in attempting to punch out the ignition.

BERAKING AND ENTERING

BREAKING AND ENTER

from the stage and pounced upon by two others. The women was treated for a head bruise and injured knee at Botsford Hospiinjured knee at Boteford Hospi-tal around 2:45 am. The victim and her friends appeared intoxi-cated, polico reports said.

A 43-year-old Farmington Hills man was charged with assault and battery after an altercation with his live-in girl-friend over her refusal to have sex with him Saturday after-neon.

In Farmington Hills: More than $6,800 in tools was

LARCENY FROM AUTO

In Farmington Hills:
A television set and recorder were reported stolen

FIRE GALLS

Saturday from the Rainbow
Rehabilitation Center, 27855
Spring Valloy, a group home after unknown parties broke through a locked rear door.
A burglar stole a portable television from a resident's room at Charter House, 21017 Middlebelt, early Sunday morning by prying open the screen and a window.

Window.

VEHICLE ARSON

In Farmington Hills:

A Detroit man who spent the night at his married girlfriend's house in Farmington Hills found all four tires bin his 1991 Chevrolet Camaro slashed and the inside of his venice ourned out.

Police estimated damages at $6,000 and said the woman suspects her estranged husband whb lives in Detroit was

MISCHIEVOUS JUVENILES

MESCHEVOUS JUVENIES
In Formington:
Public ancity officers were dispatched about 5 p.m. Saturday to the Rite Aid Pharmady, 22084 Farmington Road, 'after receiving reports' of aomeone being absculted with a BB gun.
The victim, a 43-year-old Farmington man who was shopping inside the store, said he heard a loud click behind him and, as he turned, felt a small, plastic disc brush past his left eye. Another shopper also said she was hit in the back with a similar object.

Two 12-year-old Farmington residents ultimately were caught and chastised for their actions. Their parents also were notified and said they would handle disciplinary matters. The victim said he did not wish to press charges against the youths.

ANN ARBOR Apollo

(313) 668-6100 DEARBORN Krug

16901 Mack Ave. (113) 815-1000

BIOD Wiederard Are 1990s NAC 1866 CHJ1 869-5000

GARDEN CITY Stu Evans Varsity

1-800-350-MERC

Arnold

29000 Gratics at 11 Mil. RJ (810) 445-6000

21 North Main St at 0 Ma Rt (248) 541-8830

Stu Evans (113) 285-8820

1950 West Maple for the 156 (248) 641-6600

WATEREORD Mel Farr

YPŞILANTI Sesi

Two Family Values You Can Really Drive Home.

Imagine yourself in a Mercury

Visit us on the Internet at http://www.lincolnmercury.com

See The New '98 Mcrcury Grand Marquis This Week.