Where Do We Get Our Strength?
It seems today that we are constantly faced with various concerns that require an inner strength to help us through difficult times. It doesn't matter whether our problems are related to health, finances, or family issues, it is important to know that we do not have to face these situations alone. By developing a relationship with God, we can take comfort in knowing that life will be our source of strength whenever we are faced with a crisis. Attempts to find strength through the use of alcohol or drugs, will only mask our problems for a few hours; whereas, God's strength is permanent. Difficult situations require a strong spiritual strength and we should be spiritually ready for whatever adversity comes our way. Trusting and finding our strength in God is important in our everyday lives.

God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.
KJV Psalm 46:1
