

FREE FOR STOMACH AND BOWELS

We are in receipt of letters from Mrs. Eva Gaskins, 304 Madison St., Topeka, Kan., and Mr. P. H. Gavel, 15, Wagoner, Okla., as well as many others, telling about the wonderful results they have secured in the cure of their stomach and liver troubles by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

This remedy, as all readers doubtless know, has been before the public for a generation and is now being more extensively used than any other remedy for stomach, liver and bowel complaints. According to reliable testimony, it seems to be a very quick and lasting cure for constipation, indigestion and dyspepsia, liver trouble, biliousness, headaches, sour stomach, gas on the stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar disorders. It is a liquid with tonic effect, and so and gentle in action that a child as well as a grown person can take it. In fact, it has no equal for children, women and old people.

It arouses the flow of gastric juice, and by a peculiar action trains the stomach and bowel muscles to action. It does their work naturally, and in time medicines of all kinds can be dispensed with. A free sample bottle can be had for trial by sending your address to the doctor, for in this way Mrs. Gaskins, Mr. Gavel and many others have learned the cure. Later, when satisfied it is the remedy you need, do as others are doing and buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

For the free sample address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

'Mail Order' Stoves and Ranges Not Shipped Set Up

"Mail-order" stoves are not shipped set up and ready for service. It is shipped all set in the box and other work parts must be taken to the dealer, carrying it home, and setting it, getting it out of the crate, making it together, then setting it up. It takes a couple of weeks for mail-order stoves to be delivered. When you buy a Garland Stove or Range, you get it set up and ready for service. No time, no trouble, no expense, no delay, no damage.

Not Easy to Return 'Mail Order' Stoves

When you get a "mail-order" stove, you are almost bound to get it set up and ready for service. If you don't like it, you can't return it. The "mail-order" stove is shipped in a box, and you have to take it apart, and then you have to take it back. It is a great deal of trouble, and it is a great deal of expense. If you buy a Garland Stove or Range, you get it set up and ready for service. No time, no trouble, no expense, no delay, no damage.

See the Stove First

When you order from a "mail-order" stove concern you have paid for the stove in advance. If it is not what you want, you have to pay for it. If you buy a Garland Stove or Range, you get it set up and ready for service. No time, no trouble, no expense, no delay, no damage.

Caution!

AGENTS of the largest makers of stoves and ranges in the world, we have decided to place the stove buyers of this country in possession of certain facts on the "mail-order" stove and range situation, which will enable every buyer to safeguard his interests in advance of making a purchase. We take this step because we feel that we owe a duty to the public which for 40 years has favored Garland Stoves and Ranges with overwhelming evidence of its approval. For today you will find Garland Stoves and Ranges in over 4,000,000 homes.

Here, in brief, are the facts:
The trade-mark name, "Garland," on a stove or range, because of the quality and service which it represents, has become enormously valuable. Its value is estimated at millions of dollars. Behind it are 40 years of steady, inventive experience, skilled workmanship and conscientious effort. In recent years, some concerns, selling stoves and ranges by "mail order," have sought to trade on the Garland reputation by offering cheap stoves at cheap prices on the representation that such goods are "as good as Garlands." The time has come when the protection of stove buyers demands that we brand these claims as absolutely false.

The purpose of this announcement is to point out to the stove buyer the pitfalls of the system of "mail-order" stove-dealing and the safe, convenience, satisfaction and greater economy of buying stoves and ranges from established local dealers.

Excess Freight in 'Mail-Order Stove Buying'

Those who buy single stoves and ranges by mail risk paying the highest freight rate. We buy in bulk lots, but whether you buy by mail or from us, you always pay the same freight. The real price of a "mail-order" stove or range is the dealer's price plus the freight. Just stick a pin in that statement, and save yourself the shock of an unexpected freight bill. Buy from us and all the money will go into stove value, for we save you all freight freight.

30 Days' Free Trial vs. Permanent Satisfaction

The "30 Days' Free Trial" proposition is the favorite method of some "mail-order" stove concerns to test people to buy stoves and ranges. But they never let you try the goods and refund your money at the end of the 30 days' free trial if the stove is not to your liking. It is a great deal of trouble, and it is a great deal of expense. If you buy a Garland Stove or Range, you get it set up and ready for service. No time, no trouble, no expense, no delay, no damage.
