The first time that I heard the statement, "you can't get there from here," I had to stop and think for a minute. Then I realized that you should be able to go anywhere and that this was just one of those little nonsequel statements. In life, our final destination should be to spend eternity with our heavenly Father, but it is amazing how many people believe that they can't get to heaven because of their past actions or deeds. God has provided all of us with directions to eternal life. The Bible tells us that although we have all sinned and come short of God's glory, God loves us so much that He gave His only begotten Son, Jesus, to die for us in restitution for all of our sins. We can indeed get to Heaven from here; we just have to accept God's direction.
