CITY OF FARMINGTON HILLS

OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN

NOTICE TO CUT WEEDS

It shall be the duty of all owners within an area of 100 feet or less from a platted subdivision, or a single family residential condominium; or within a platted subdivision, or a single family residential condominium; or within 100 feet of any major road, to keep noxious vegetation or long grass growth to a maximum height of no more than eight (8) inches above ground level or a level which prohibits a flower bearing state, whichever level is less. Noxious vegetation and lawn grass growth not appropriately cut by June 1, 1998, and thereafter for the remainder of the year may be cut by the City and the owner will be charged with the expense and costs of each cut as provided in Article II Section 17-29 of the Farmington Hills City Code. This may be done as many times as is necessary during the growing season. In addition to the above costs assessed pursuant to Article II Sections 17-28 through 17-31 for each cutting of noxious vegetation or lawn grass growth by the City or its agent(s), any owner who has refused or otherwise failed to cut noxious vegetation or lawn grass growth as provided for in Article II Sections 17-28 through 17-31 shall, upon a finding of responsibility, be subject to a civil fine of not more than Five Hundred and no/100 ($500.00) Dollars together with the costs of prosecution which shall include actual attorneys' fees incurred by the City. The term "noxious vegetation" means those plants described in Section II of Act No. 359 of the Public Acts of Michigan of 1941 (MCL 247.62; MSA 9.631 (2)), as amended, and all types and varieties of wild grass and weeds which exceed the height of eight (8) inches above ground level.

Religious diversity symposium set

The Farmington/Farmington Hills Multicultural/Multiracial Community Council invites the public to a symposium on religious diversity, set for 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the parish hall of Our Lady of Sorrows Church.

The program, which is free, will highlight students, parents and other community members, who represent a variety of religious beliefs that have become part of the community, including Muslims, Buddhists, Taoists, Hindus, Eastern Christians and others.

Polly Bachrouche, director of the International Center at Oakland Community College, will also be moderator of a brief panel discussion. Panelists will include Mery High School student Kai-Ling Su, Wood Creek Elementary School teacher Kilano Resheen, Our Lady of Sorrows seventh grade student Mohamad Bachrouche and Rajendra Shaw, a community member.

Jerry Fouchey, director of staff and curriculum for Farmington schools, will also discuss the district's new religion policy.

For more information, call 489-3339. The church is located at 23815 Power Road, between 10 Mile-Shiawassee in Farmington.
