GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE
The annual Birmingham community ecumenical Good Friday service will be held from noon to 3 p.m. on Friday, April 10, at Central Woodward Christian Church, 3955 W. Big Beaver Road. Thirteen congregations will gather to portray the story of Jesus' crucifixion to set the stage for Christians' joyous celebration of Easter Sunday. The service is divided into six 30-minute segments. Worshipers are invited to come at any half-hour mark and remain as long as they desire. The service features the choir of the First Baptist Church, First United Methodist Church, Pilgrim Congregational Church, Congregational Church of Birmingham, First Presbyterian Church and Central Woodward Christian Church. Preachers include the Revs. Richard C. Cheatham, H. Jack Brown, Ronald F. Byars, Juanita J. Ferguson, Frederick G. Overdier and Allan Eickelmann. Coordinating the event are the Rev. Daniel H. Kuhn, Jr., senior minister, and Susan Acton, choral director of the Michigan Opera Theater Co. and church music director, both of Central Woodward Christian Church. For information, call (248) 644-0512.

CHICAGO STAFF BAND
The Salvation Army of Farmington Hills is sponsoring the Chicago Staff Band in concert at 7 p.m. on April 18, at the First Church of the Nazarene, 21260 Haggerty Road, Northville. ## Before you have a baby, talk to a woman who's had more than 1000.

The female obstetricians and certified nurse midwives of Providence Hospital and Medical Centers have delivered thousands of babies between them. And they've had a few of their own, as well. So if you think a woman's touch would make your birth experience a better one, then you've come to the right place.

Of course, no matter which gender you prefer (for your doctor, that is) all of Providence's obstetricians and certified nurse midwives are highly skilled and experienced. And they work in some of the most accommodating, comfortable, family-centered birth facilities in Michigan. Providence Park in Novi and the New Life Center in Southfield offer the comforts of home, with the reassurance of state-of-the-art equipment standing by. For low-risk births, the Family Birthing Center in Southfield offers a safer alternative to home birth, providing queen-size beds, Jacuzzi tubs and sleeping accommodations for family members.

For your birth experience, Providence has all the choices: the medical professionals, the accommodations, the technology. Just ask any woman who's been there—even just once. For more information, call 1-800-968-5595.
